Introduction

I should warn you that doing genealogy and looking for your ancestors can become addictive ... although I've always found the truly compelling part is the thrill of discovery when you find each new ancestor. We've found the research to be exciting. We've visited as many of our ancestral sites as possible, from the Isle of Wight and Jamestown, through Virginia and the Carolinas, to Robertson County, Tennessee and eventually to Perry and Washington Counties in Illinois. I now wish we had kept a diary of our travels to the many courthouses, libraries and cemeteries. We especially enjoyed the many "cousins" we've discovered along the way, glad to have had the opportunity to meet them and share genealogy material with them. "Pure" genealogists will likely have some problems with this book or at least with the way it has been presented. I can only apologize and explain that first and foremost, I wanted to write a family history to help our family members know who their ancestors are, what they did and how they lived. We should be very proud to be their descendants.

I would like to express my gratitude to everyone who provided support for this book. First and foremost, I must thank my wife, Norma, my "partner" in life and in this project. Her ability to remember dates and names as well as connect them was far superior to mine and I could not have accomplished this without her help. Thank you also to our youngest daughter, Julie, who gave us an early nudge by trying to research her grandfather, Henry B. Olson. Thank you as well to my "favorite" daughter in law, Kathy, for making sense of my handwriting and typing the first draft. Thank you to our son, Ric, for his travel assistance and his help with the research in Vicksburg. Thank you as well to our oldest daughter, Jane, for her skills in typing, organizing, and putting together the layout of the book. This truly has been a family project and I've appreciated their interest and their support. And finally, thank you to my extended family of "Jones" cousins, especially Jo Ann Leu, who helped assemble family information and photographs from our cousins out of state. I must also thank Betty (Mrs. David Jones), another family member, who has devoted countless hours to assembling and maintaining her wonderful family history albums and was kind enough to share the Jones Family Album filled with photos, stories, names and dates.

If I were to dedicate this book to anybody, it would have to be to two intrepid young boys who at the age of ten left their homes in the "old world" to journey to America. They are two of our families' first generation of early emigrants – Abraham Wood in 1620 and Henry B. Olson in 1885.

This work is not complete. We've left a number of unfinished lines that can still be researched. It is our sincere hope that each succeeding generation will add their own "memories" to this book to help future generations know who their ancestors were.

We thoroughly enjoyed researching and writing this book, and hope you enjoy reading it.

CHAPTER 1

THE EARLIEST SETTLERS IN THE NEW WORLD

Captain Peter Wynne, Colonel Robert Wynne, and Captain Joshua Wynne

Our Wynne ancestors came from Kent, Canterbury, England. The Wynne name is found in Canterbury's records as early as 1356. From that time on down to Robert Wynne, Mayor of Canterbury, 1599, the name appears often in the records. Robert Wynne, Mayor of Canterbury, and his wife, Frances Wattmer, both died of the plague in 1609, leaving 5 children orphaned. One of those children was Peter Wynne and he was our earliest ancestor to set foot on American soil. He is also listed as Captain Peter Winne in some records as shown below in the text of this historical monument located in Jamestown.¹

Both photos were taken in 2001.

Captain Peter Wynne came to Virginia with Captain Newport on the ship named "Mary and Margaret." This was the second supply ship arriving to the Jamestown colony. On June 2, 1607, Captain Newport with his band of 23 other explorers arrived at Arrahattoch, marking the beginning of the history of Henrico County, VA. Seventeen days after the "First colony in Virginia" had been established at Jamestown on May 14th, "Captain Newport, along with his mariners and sailors, went in his shallop to discover up the river as advised to do by the King's council for Va." To condense a lengthy report of their exploration, let me just say they spent four days exploring up the river as far as present day Richmond and arrived back in Jamestown on June 6th.²

The history of Goochland County (Western Henrico until 1728) began in October 1608 when Capt. Newport, Waldo, Wynne, Percy and others made an exploration up the James River above the falls which is the present day site of Richmond, Virginia. The expedition began in October and ended about November 27, 1608. This was an important expedition. The English went for the first time into the wilderness for any considerable distance beyond the protection of their ship.

Captain Peter Wynne died in 1609. He had been appointed Deputy Governor of Virginia but had died before he could serve. (Authors note: at this point in history we have an amazing intersection of two different ancestral lines. My wife, Norma Bray Olson's ancestor, Stephen Hopkins was a passenger on the Sea Venture, a ship that had been heading for Jamestown but was shipwrecked in a hurricane off the island of Bermuda. He later sailed back to England and returned on the Mayflower. Another passenger on the Sea Venture was Sir Thomas Gates who was authorized to act as Governor of Virginia. In his absence, Sir Thomas Gates had sent a missive appointing our ancestor, Captain Peter Wynne as Deputy Governor of Virginia but the missive arrived to find him already deceased.)³

Captain Peter Wynne married Martha Coppin circa 1590-91. Martha Coppin's father was William Coppin. (Author's note: When we entered Martha Coppin's name in the IGS computer in the Wayne County Library, in Ft. Wayne, Indiana, we feared we had broken it. The computer produced a stack of sheets taking this line back to Charlemagne beginning in the year 768. The history has been provided by the Society of Genealogists in London, in 1983, for Allen Cabaniss, Professor History Emeritus, University of Mississippi.)

Captain Peter Wynne married Martha Coppin about 1590-91, they had one known child

1. Robert Wynne bap. 1622, died 1675, married Mary Poythress

Captain Peter and Martha Coppin Wynne's son, Colonel Robert Wynne, was baptized 28 December 1622 in Canterbury, England. He married Mary (widow of Francis Poythress) about 1655. He was captain and colonel of the militia of Charles City County and lived in Jordan's Parish. It is not known exactly when our Colonel Robert Wynne came to Virginia. About 1651, age 29, he first appears in Virginia records along with Captain Abraham Wood. Colonel Robert Wynne was speaker of the House of Burgesses during the "Long Parliament", 1664 to 1674. Col. Robert Wynne was considered one of the most influential men in Virginia in his day. He died in 1675. Because he owned property in England, his will was probated there. If it was not for this, the place of his old home in England would not be known, as the Charles City records for that early period have perished. His will, dated 1 July 1675, listed sons Robert, Thomas, Joshua and daughter Woodlief.⁴

Colonel Robert Wynne married Mary Poythress about 1655, they had four children:

1. Robert Wynne
2. Thomas Wynne
3. Joshua Wynne born 1663, died 1712, married Mary Jones
4. Woodlief Wynne

Joshua Wynne

Joshua Wynne, (his actual signature, above) was the youngest son of Colonel Robert Wynne. He was born in 1663, Charles City County, Virginia. He was Burgess for Charles City County from 1695 to 1712. He was a major in the militia of Prince George County. It was mentioned that he owned 850 acres in Prince George County. He was sheriff of that County in 1705 and 1711. Joshua, like his brother, Thomas, was an Indian interpreter. In 1704 the Nottoway, Meherrin, Nansemond, Pamunkey, and Chickahominy Indians petitioned the government to allow some of their chiefs to go north to conclude a peace with the Seneca's, and ransom the Nottoway "King" taken prisoner the past summer. "They desired leave to take with them Captain Joshua Wynne and Captain Thomas Wynne without whose consent and approbation they were to conclude nothing."⁵ (Author's note: Isn't it interesting that the Indians requested two English brothers to act as interpreters. We suspect that it is possible that their mother, Mary Poythress Wynne, may have been an Indian herself and taught her sons the language and customs of her people.

Captain Joshua Wynne married Mary Jones, (daughter of Captain Peter Jones and Margaret Wood Jones. See Chapter 2) They had five children:⁶

1. Peter Wynne m. Francis Anderson
2. Joshua Wynne m. Mary
3. Robert Wynne m. Francis
4. Francis Wynne
5. William Wynne born about 1705, married Frances Reade about 1720

Joshua Wynne's death date has been estimated to be 1712 and at that time his rank was listed as Major. This death date is an entry in the Minutes of the Provincial Council of Pennsylvania (1713-1735), Philadelphia, 1852, 3:21-22. "At a council held at Conestoga, 19th July, 1717, Captain Christopher Smith of Virginia appeared to interrogate the Shawnee Indians, who were one of several tribes represented at Council, concerning several outrages over a period of years. Being further asked whether any of their Indians knew any thing of killing Major Joshua Wynne in Virginia., about 5 years agoe, they said they did not know anything of it." If the 5-year estimate is correct, Joshua was killed in 1712. (It's believed that Joshua was killed by Indians. A local Indian chief had been murdered and according to the traditions of the tribe, required retaliation by the tribe in the form of killing of a settler of the same stature as the Indian chief. Apparently, Major Joshua Wynne was considered to be of the same stature as an Indian Chief.)⁷

THE EXPLORATION OF THE NEW WORLD

Abraham Wood

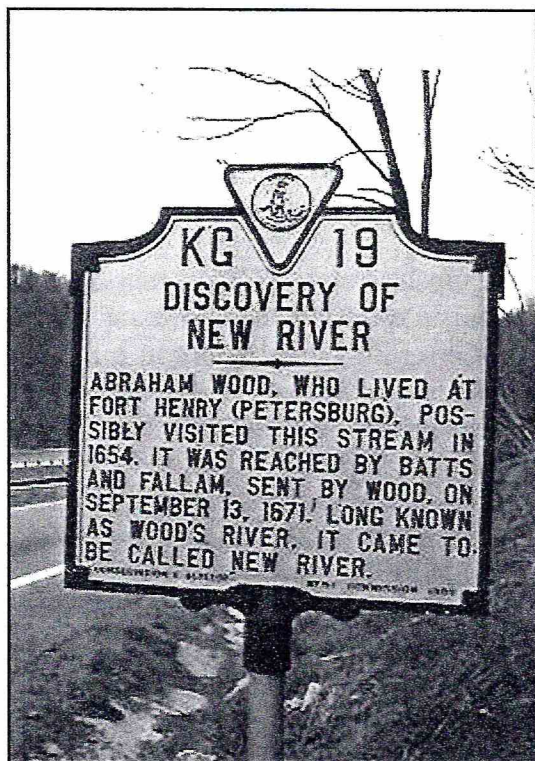

Abraham Wood sailed across the Atlantic to Virginia in 1620 aboard the ship called the "Margaret and John," along the way surviving a sea battle with two Spanish men-of-war ships.¹ He was listed as a young boy about ten years old during the journey, probably an orphan. He paid his passage by working for Captain Samuel Mathews on his plantation across the river from Jamestown. He is listed in the 1624 -25 muster as a lad of ten.

On the 14th of May in 1638 he patented his first holding of land consisting of 400 acres in Charles City located on the Appomattox River, adjoining the lands of John Baker and Joseph Bourne and extending "west on the main river." He later added more land in 1639 and 1642 which provided him with property on both sides of the Appomattox.^{2 4 5}

In 1644, on Holy Thursday, April 18th, the Indian Chief, Opechancanough led a massacre of the settlers living on the English plantations. More than 500 colonists were killed, even more than were killed during the Good Friday attack in 1622.³ This time, Governor Berkeley began a major war campaign against the Indians. Following the massacre, Fort Henry was built as an outpost authorized by Act of Assembly, March 21st, 1645, as protection against the Indians. It was built near the falls of the Appomattox, probably on Flea Island and near Abraham Wood's plantation. "Before the end of the year the Assembly found the fort too great of a burden upon the public and granted the fort and 600 acres of land to Abraham Wood and his heirs forever, with all houses and edifices belonging to the fort, all boats and ammunition at present belonging to the fort."⁵ With the governor's blessing, Wood began a trading network with the Indians. Each year a party of 100 horses left Fort Henry and returned laden with furs and deerskins.³ In 1653, the Assembly granted Wood and his associates special privileges for fourteen years in trading activities "in places where no English ever have bin and discovered, nor have had particular trade." The Act is as follows. Passed July, 1653: "Whereas, an act was made in the Assembly, 1642, for encouragement of discoveries to the westward and southward of this country, granting them all profits arising thereby for fourteen years, which act is since discontinued and made void, it is by this Assembly ordered that Colonel William Clayborne, Esq., and Captain Henry Fleet, they and their associates with them, either jointly or severally, may discover, and shall enjoy such benefits, profits and trades for fourteen years as the shall find out in places where no English ever have bin and discovered, nor have had particular trade, and to take up such lands by patents proving their rights as they shall think good: nevertheless, not excluding others after their choice from taking up land and planting in these new discovered places, as in Virginia now versed. The like order is granted to Major Abram Wood and his associates."⁷ The three gentlemen William Clayborne, Henry Fleet and Abraham Wood, mentioned in this act, each represented a shire in the Virginia House of Burgesses, and were intent, no doubt, upon the acquisition of wealth and the development of the country. There is no information that any of the persons named in the preceding act, with the exception of Colonel Abraham Wood, at any time made an effort to accomplish the purpose of the act.⁸

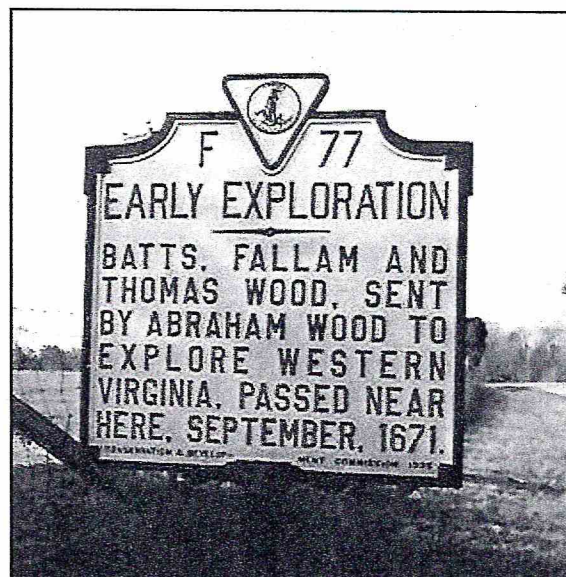

Abraham Wood served as Justice of Charles City, as commanding officer of the "trained bands" of Charles City and Henrico, member of the House of Burgesses from Henrico, 1644-46, from Charles City, 1652-1656 and member of the Council, 1657. He held the rank of major as late as 27, October, 1656 and was referred to as colonel on 24, June 1657. In 1650, with Edward Bland, Sacheverell Brewster and Elias Pennant, he undertook a voyage of discovery along the Chowan and Nottaway Rivers into North Carolina, an account of which, entitled "The Discovery of New Brittain," was kept by Bland.⁵ It should be noted that children learn in school today of the intrepid French adventurers (Joliet, Marquette and LaSalle) in 1671 exploring the west by way of the Great Lakes, when in truth they were preceded by Abraham Wood, who from 1650-1673 organized several exploration parties by way of the Alleghany Region, and by waters flowing into the Ohio and eventually claiming the Mississippi Valley for England.^{6,9} Abraham Wood and his associates had explored to the north as far as the Great Lakes, to the west probably as far as the Mississippi, as well as to the south. He also developed trade routes with the Indians in the surrounding areas.

Photos taken in April 1994.

Only the beginning portion of the will of Abraham Wood has survived ... "In the name of God, amen, I, Abraham Wood, in the county of Charles City in Virginia, being very weary and weak in spirit, but in good and perfect Memory, thanks be to God, make & ordain this last will and testament in manner and form following ... My body to be buried in the night by my wife ... Item: I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Chamberlaine, my silver tobacco box and my plantation with all thereupon belonging to me known by the name of Fleetes in Henrico County and also three hundred acres of land lying and being upon the uttermost line of a patent granted to me bearing date the tenth of July, one thousand six hundred and eighty, which land is known by the name of Ronhorak, to her and her heirs forever; I give and bequeath to my grandchildren-in-law, viz: Abrah Jones, Richard Jones, Peter Jones and William Jones, all my lands, housing, orchards and tenements lying and being in Charles City County, Virginia, to them and their heirs forever, equally to be divided & they to make theirs according to their seniority (excepting what is already bequeathed to my daughter Mary Chamberlaine) & one hundred acres which I give unto my godson Abraham Alley lying and being upon the braches of the run called Shornases [?], being the easterly line of my dividend to him the said Abrah. Alley & his brother Henry Alley equally to be divided, to them and their heirs forever, And what person or persons whatsoever by any claim of right [torn] shall disturb or molest the said Abraham Jones, Richard J[ones], Peter Jones & William Jones or either of them, their or either [torn] heirs in the peaceable and quiet enjoyment thereof that [torn] or she or whatsoever they be, to pay unto Abraham Jone[s], Richard Jones, Peter Jones & William Jones or their heirs the ..." The document was torn and in some places the tear obscures the wording. Until the fragment of the will, above, was discovered, it had been accepted that Margaret, wife of Peter Jones, was a daughter of Abraham Wood. From the mention of her children as Wood's "grandchildren-in-law," it appears that perhaps his wife was a widow and Margaret was her daughter by a previous husband. Although it has been suggested that "in-law" was used to indicate that the Jones children were Wood's "legal" grandchildren, the provision to protect them from disturbance or molestation by any person or persons have "claim of right" tends to support the more conventional use of "in-law" in the seventeenth century to reflect a step-relationship. Until further evidence can be adduced to clarify the matter, it must be stated that there is no proof that Margaret, wife of Peter Jones, was the daughter of Abraham Wood.⁷

There is also a chance that Abraham Wood's wife was Native American. During our research we thought it was very odd that her name is not mentioned anywhere. While we can probably never prove it one way or another, it really is an interesting theory. It would also explain the fact that Abraham Wood was allowed safe travel exploring throughout the frontier area, plus his ability to maintain peace with the Indians in his area, as well as his success as a trader. The only mention of his wife is found in his will (see previous page) where he asks to be buried in the night, next to her.

CHAPTER 3

THE FUR TRADER

Peter Jones and Petersburg, Virginia

Peter Jones' name first appears on the records in 1657 living in Charles City County. On the 11th of June of that year it was ordered that "Capt. Peter Jones have ye conduct and command of ye particular company belonging to Col. Abraham Wood and certify the same and he have power to command as it is or shall be directed by the laws of ye country or by ye colonel,"¹ to repress the Indian disturbances, which led to Bacon's Rebellion. In 1676, Garrisons were placed in forts at various places on the frontier to Major-General Woods, at the falls of the Appomattox River. Major Peter Jones was put in command of fifty seven men from Elizabeth City, Warwick, and James City counties.

Peter Jones was born in England, we've not been able to determine an exact date but believe it was before 1620. We've also not been able to determine when he arrived in the colonies. We do know he married Margaret Wood, daughter (or perhaps step-daughter) of Col. Abraham Wood, about 1658.

Peter Jones and Margaret Wood Jones had 11 children, or more. We don't have all of their names but some of the known children are:

1. Abraham Jones born about 1660
2. Peter Jones II born about 1664 Married Mary Batte, their known children are:
 1. Abraham Jones born about 1693
 2. Peter Jones III born about 1695
 3. Thomas Jones born about 1697
 4. John Jones born about 1699
 5. William Jones born about 1701
 6. Wood Jones born about 1703
 7. Mary Jones born about 1705
3. Mary Jones born about 1666, married Joshua Wynne
 1. Peter Wynne born about 1687 died after 1732, married Frances Anderson
 2. Joshua Wynne Jr. Born about 1689, married Mary (last name unknown)
 3. Robert Wynne, born about 1690, married Frances??
 4. Frances Wynne born about 1695
 5. William Wynne born about 1705, married Frances Reade
4. Margaret Jones born after 1667

Peter Jones died about 1675, following his death Margaret married (2) Thomas Cocke. Her will listed her children (but possibly not all of them). Her will, which was not recorded but is deposited in the Virginia State Library, was made 12 August 1718, Henrico County. Bristol parish, (up the Appomattox River from Jamestown) resulted from increasing population in the area. It was established in 1643. Fort Henry was built there in 1645-46. This is the general area where Peter Jones established his Trading Station known as Peter's Point. Fur pelts were traded for and sent back to England.

Peter's Point Trading Station is said to have flourished late into the seventeenth century. (The authors and family visited the site of Peter Jones' Trading Station in 2001, shortly after it received severe storm damage during a tornado. The quality of stone work and construction, even after 250 years, was still quite evident. It gave us a sense of awe to realize we were standing on the site and ground our ancestors stood on in the earliest days of our country.)

The area surrounding the trading station later became known as "Peter's Town." In 1733, Captain Peter Jones (son of Peter Jones, the fur trader) and Abram and Thomas Jones, sons of Thomas Jones and all three grandsons of General Abraham Wood founded the city of Petersburg, Virginia on this site.

The photo was taken in 1994 before a tornado caused some damage to the building.

CHAPTER 4

REVOLUTIONARY WAR ANCESTORS

William Wynne and John Wynne

William Wynne was born about 1705 in Prince George County, Virginia, son of Major Joshua Wynne and Mary Jones. The first record of him was in 1727 at age 22 when he made his first deposition in Prince George County. He married Frances Reade about 1720. He was a Justice in Brunswick County in 1732. He was appointed sheriff of that county in 1736. In 1738 William Wynne was one of the justices of Brunswick County. He entered for 200 acres on the south side of Dan River; and in 1746 Wynne and others had orders for 4,000 and 5,000 acres on Beaver Creek. William Wynne later moved his family to this new county; and Wynnes Creek of the Dan River and Wynne Falls where the city of Danville, VA. stands were named in his honor.¹ He wrote his will on 8 October 1777, then died shortly after. He listed William, Thomas, John, Robert, Margaret, Elizabeth, Mary, and Martha in his will. It is not known when Frances died. (Author's note: it is very probable that since William Wynne and Clement Reade were business partners, and it is known that Clement Reade had a daughter named Frances, that Clement Reade was also William's father in law.)

William and Frances Wynne had the following children:

1. John Wynne first wife unknown, two children:
Elizabeth Wynne (Winn)
Millender Wynne (Winn)

John Wynne married second wife Ann Stone

John Wynne (Winn) Jr.
Lucretia Wynne (Winn)
Peter Wynne (Winn)
Mary Ann Wynne (Winn)
Littleberry Wynne (Winn)
Jane (Jincy) Wynne (Winn)
Mourning Wynne (Winn)
Jerusha Wynne (Winn)

2. William Wynne (Winn)
3. Martha Wynne (Winn)
4. Elizabeth Wynne (Winn)
5. Margaret Wynne (Winn)
6. Mary Wynne (Winn)
7. Robert Wynne (Winn)
8. Thomas Wynne (Winn)

John Wynne (Winn), son of William Wynne and Frances (Reade) was born about 1726 in Prince George County, VA. John Wynne received a grant of land in Brunswick on the south side of Tucking Creek adjoining the land of his brother, Thomas, in 1746, just before the change in county line placed the land in Lunenburg co. VA. John Wynne married Ann Stone about 1745 in Lunenburg County, Virginia.²

Captain John Wynne served in the French and Indian war. (Authors note: Also listed as soldiers from Amelia County were Thomas Jones, James Rice and Thomas Gunn.³ All three of them are ancestors you will read about in later chapters.) At a meeting in Pittsylvania County, on Wednesday 27 September 1775, a group of gentlemen were selected to serve as officers in the militia. John Wynne's name was on that list along with Thomas Jones. At another court held October 23, 1777, John Wynne was sworn in as lieutenant to serve with Captain Robert Payne's company. At a court held April 18, 1780, John Wynne produced a commission and took the oath as Captain of county militia.⁴

In addition to his active service in the militia during the Revolutionary War, John Wynne was also listed among those who provided support by way of foodstuffs, arms, livestock, or other supplies for use by the militia. We found John Wynne listed twice: 1) "For a Negro fellow 8 days assisting across Dan River" 2) "For 300# beef for the Cont."⁵ John Wynne's will was probated 2 February 1795 in Lunenburg County. It mentions his wife Ann and sons Littleberry, John, and Peter, and daughters Mourning, Lucretia, Mary Ann, Jincey, and Jerusha. Elizabeth Allen and Millinder Stone were children by his first wife (name unknown). Ann Stone Wynne died before 1805.

John Wynn had bought land from John Stone, Sr., who was his father-in-law. John Stone was born about 1700 Lunenburg county, VA. He died before 1782 in Mecklenburg County, Va. We are not sure who he married. John Stone's father is believed to have been William Stone, Sr., born before 1680 and died about 1761 in Lunenburg county, VA.

CHAPTER 5

THE GUNNS OF SCOTLAND

Thomas I, II, III

One of our family tree roots goes back deeply into the history of Scotland. The clan Gunn, of Norse descent, occupied the highland portions of Caithness in Northern Scotland. Material taken from the Clan Gunn Societies history provides the following information and notes of interest. "There is no evidence of them [clan Gunn] holding land before the mid 17th century. And what they had must have been kept by the sword". Various clashes with one or other of the powerful neighbors continued, and the Gunns were blamed for the troubles and commotions that disturbed the north. In 1585 the Earls of Sutherland and Caithness resolved that some of them, "Chiefly the tribe that has dwelt in Caithness, should be made away with". The plan failed, however, for the Gunns and their friends made good use of their bows and their advantage of good ground, where they united for the last time in battle for existence. The Gunns, probably because they would not give up without a fight, were the hardest hit clans in Scotland, and certainly the attraction to some of them of the new world. The lure of a piece of land of their own was a beacon or ray of hope to some of the Gunn Clan.

The Gunns were listed officially in 1594 among the "Broken Clans" of the north. Another connection with Caithness as a distinct community came to an end soon after. But as the story of the Clan comes to an end, it continues as that of individual Gunns. Such as those who founded new Kildonan in Canada and another who helped choose the site of New Zealand's capital. Or of those Gunns who made the journey to America. Thomas Gunn I was christened in St. Olave's church, Southwark, England in 1650. His father was Nathaniel Pistole Gunn, born in England, 1630. He married Sabina Pope in 1648 in St. Olaves church, Southwark (heart of London), England. (A note of interest: the authors visited another St. Olaves church in Trondheim Norway, another indication of early Norse influence in England.)

Nathaniel Pistole Gunn and Sabrina Pope Gunn had one known child :

1. Thomas Gunn I, born about 1650, wife's name unknown, one known child:

1. Thomas Gunn II

More information from the Viking Salute published by the Clan Gunn Society indicates Thomas Gunn I came to America in the 1600's and settled in the area that became Petersburg, Virginia. And that he helped clear the land where Petersburg, VA now is located. He married about 1670 in Virginia. We do not know who he married. Thomas Gunn II was born about 1689, we believe, in the Petersburg area. We can find no record of Thomas Gunn I's death other than it was after 1689. Thomas Gunn II married Sarah Boatright of Amelia county, VA where it is believed they lived. He purchased land on Horsespan Creek in Henrico County, VA sometime after 1721. He, like his father, was a farmer.

Sarah Boatright Gunn and Thomas Gunn II had 11 children:

1. Thomas Gunn III
2. Rebeckah Gunn Webb
3. Elizabeth Gunn Sharpe
4. Sara Gunn Yaxle
5. William Gunn
6. John Gunn

7. Mary Gunn Jeffres
8. James Gunn
9. Edey Gunn Hogan
10. Daniel Gunn
11. Elisha Gunn

Thomas Gunn II had a grandson, Sterling Gunn, who served in the Revolutionary War, and who is reputed to have fired the first cannon in that war. He was also said to have witnessed the surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown.¹ Thomas Gunn II died in 1778 in Amelia county, Va. His will names his children and wife, and can be found in Will Book #2 page 303 Amelia County, Va.

Thomas Gunn III was born in 1738 in Va. He had four wives and 14 children.

His first wife was Susanna Burnett (daughter of John Burnett).

Susanna Burnett Gunn and Thomas Gunn III had 8 children:

1. Elisha Gunn b. July 1761 m. Rettis Wilkes
2. Sterling Gunn b 9 May 1764 m. Mary Elizabeth "Polly" Hooper
3. Daniel Gunn b. 20 March 1766 m. Jerusha Winn (Wynne)
4. Mary Gunn b. 27 Dec. 1767 m. Ellis Evans
5. Thomas Gunn IV b 10 April 1770
 - m. 1) Martha Graves 2) Martha Miles 3) Frances Kilgore
6. James Gunn b. 10 Aug 1772 m. 1) Morning Winn 2) Barbara Walker
7. Griffin Gunn b. 11 March 1775 m. Dorothy Mitchell
8. William Gunn b 9 May 1777

Thomas Gunn III's second wife was Sara Davenport m. 1778.

9. John b. 25 Feb 1780 m. Elizabeth Carroll

Thomas Gunn III's third wife was Ann Worsham m. 1781

10. Sara b. 9 Apr 1782 m. James Burton
11. Priscilla b. 10 Nov. 1786 m. John Payne
12. Allen b. 3 Dec 1788

Thomas Gunn III's fourth wife was Eleanor Halverson

13. Anderson b. 20 April 1798 m. Martha Robertson
14. Pinckney b. 31 Mar 1800 m. Elizabeth _____

(From research provided by Shirley Henderson Corlew, Springfield, IL)

Research work done by Gwen Gunn Shoemaker on "some descendants of Thomas Gunn III" provides the following information: Thomas Gunn III lived in Brunswick, Nottaway, Lunenburg, and Amelia counties before moving to Caswell County, North Carolina in 1791. He bought land in Caswell County from Abram Miles. Thomas Gunn III died Dec 1800. His will can be found in Will Book D. page 21, Caswell County, North Carolina. Thomas Gunn III is listed as a "patriot" in the Revolutionary War having provided wheat for Continental use (from a manuscript booklet in Virginia State Library, filed among "Public claim papers" of Amelia County, VA.²

A biography of Thomas' son, James, in a Methodist church history states that "their parents were Episcopalians and brought up their children under strict discipline. James was the first to make a public profession of faith in Christ, and unite with the Methodists." The biography adds that Thomas and his other children soon followed James into the Methodists.³

CLAN GUNN

Most Scottish family names originate around the 13th century. All had a meaning. Many are derived from a locality (foreign or home), some from occupation and some from a peculiarity or feature. Northern names are mostly patronymic i.e. Mac- or -son. Clan members adopted the name of the chief.

GUNN: Clan Gunn. This name is a shortened form of a Norse name such as Gunn-arr, Gunn-bjorn, etc. Gunni is an old West Scandinavian personal name. The Norse diminutive is Gunna whence the Gaelic Guinne. Thus the Gunns are of Norse origin and the first of the name connected with Caithness is one Gunni, son of Olaf, a Caithness chief of the 12th Century. They were a warlike clan and occupied mainly the highland portions of Caithness. They were continually feuding with the Keiths who eventually routed them. They moved thereafter to Sutherland. The Hendersons of Caithness are descended from the Caithness Gunns.

Clan Gunn

Scottish Clans have either Pictish, Celtic or Norse origins. The Clan Gunn is Norse in origin, claiming descent from Guinn or Gunni, the second son of Olaf, a chief in Caithness, and is believed to have been formed from him in the 12th Century.

Their lands are in the far north of Scotland in Caithness. They fought for and against the Earls of Sutherland the MacKays, and to a lesser extent, the Sinclairs. Their arch enemy however, was the Clan Keith with whom they feuded for 500 years. The peace treaty between the two Clans was only signed as recently as 1978.

CHAPTER 6

THE MOVE WEST

Daniel and Jerusha Winn (Wynne) Gunn

Daniel Gunn was born March 20, 1766 in Brunswick County, VA. His parents were Thomas Gunn III and Susanna Burnett. Daniel married Jerusha Winn (Wynne) daughter of John Winn (Wynne) and Ann Stone on Nov. 16, 1786 in Lunenburg county, VA. His marriage is shown on page Y of "Marriages of Lunenburg Co., VA" by Thomas Cryme; license issued Nov 9, 1786. Like his father and grandfather before him, he was a farmer. He bought 239 acres from his brother Sterling Gunn 25 June 1793 in Caswell county, NC. Daniel appears on the 1800 census in Caswell county, NC. A deed dated 1 Nov 1805 indicates he sold property. Another deed dated 21 Oct 1809 indicates he transferred land to his brother Allen Gunn. Some time after 1809, Daniel and Jerusha Gunn moved from Caswell county, NC to Robertson County TN. When our ancestors made the journey from Virginia and North Carolina it usually meant several families and neighbors made the journey together. Household goods would be stacked in covered wagons with small children, babies and the "old" folks. It was left up to the "kids" to herd the animals down the rough wagon trails. A trip from Caswell County, North Carolina to Tennessee could take weeks. They would need to live on whatever game was available and what they could carry. They would have to keep moving every day regardless of weather conditions. Try to imagine what their life was like knowing also that they will have to build their shelter or house when they finally get where they want to go.

Daniel's name appears on the 1820 census of Robertson County, TN. Daniel and Jerusha Gunn bought 52 ½ acres of land and probably built their log house around Jan 6, 1821 on Buzzard Creek of the Red River in northern Robertson County, TN. Descendants of Daniel's daughter, Elizabeth, have her family Bible which included a list of birthdates of Daniel's children. Affidavit of Daniel's heirs as shown in his brother's (Allen) estate case lists the following children with birthdates:

Daniel and Jerusha Gunn had seventeen children:

1. John Gunn born 7 Nov 1787
2. Jane Gunn born 2 Jan 1789
3. Susanna Gunn born 21 Jan 1790 m. Joshua Morris Rice (Chapter 7 & 8)
4. Graves Gunn born 8 June 1791
5. Mary Gunn born 7 Sept 1792
6. Aaron Gunn born 10 Jan 1794
7. Nancy Gunn born ca 1795
8. Griffin Gunn born 21 June 1796
9. Sterling Gunn born 3 Nov 1797
10. Sarah Gunn born 19 Feb 1799
11. Jerusha Gunn born 20 May 1800 m. Thomas H. B. Jones (Chapter 10)
12. Lucretia Gunn born 6 Dec 1801
13. Priscilla Gunn born 6 May 1803
14. Elizabeth Gunn born 17 Oct 1804
15. Thomas Gunn born 24 Feb 1806
16. Kiturah Gunn born 26 Sept 1808?
17. Daniel Gunn born 19 April 1809?

Stop for a minute and think about this – he transferred his last piece of property in Caswell County NC, in 1809. He was known to be in Robertson County, TN by the 1820 census and it's most likely they moved closer to the date he transferred his property rather than later. Let's assume they left North Carolina within a year or about 1810. They had 17 children from 1 years old to 23 years old. You wonder what that trip was like, and how often Daniel heard, "Are we there yet?" Just so you can place this trip in history remember that the State of Tennessee got it's statehood on June 1st, 1796.

We discovered a book of minutes and other business reports by the Red River Baptist Church 1791 – 1826. (See photo at right). We found it so interesting we copied the whole book, all 204 pages.

Some of the information found in Jean Durrett's collection was that Daniel and Jerusha Gunn and a number of their neighbors asked to be "dismissed" from this Church to form a new church in the sulfur creek of the Red River area. Other familiar names along with Daniel and Jerusha's were Townley Redfern, Jesse Mason, Elizabeth Mason, Dicy Hutchins, and Jincy Gunn. Daniel was an active member serving as moderator for meetings. The date of the last entry of his name was 20 Nov 1819.

On 22 Nov 1830, Daniel sold 150 acres (probably all of his property) to Asa Gunn. That same fall either before he sold his property or immediately after selling, he (and we believe Jerusha) moved to Putnam County, IL and settled a property claim on the "Oxbow Prairie". He was one of the early settlers along with another settler George Hiltabrand from Robertson County, TN. George had married Elizabeth, one of Daniel's daughters, and arrived on the Oxbow Prairie earlier in the spring. We are not sure when or where Jerusha died. One source says she arrived at Oxbow Prairie but we have not found evidence indicating she died there. This was during the period of the Black Hawk War and the Oxbow Prairie was close to this conflict. We need to acknowledge research support from Mrs. Francis A. Pletsch, who has researched the Hiltabrand and Jones. In her material, she indicates "Indians lived a mile or so from these early settlers. This was a wild frontier life. The settlers had built a stockade and blockhouse for defense against the Indians at the outbreak of the Blackhawk War." This is early in Illinois History. Illinois became a state in 1818. The village of Chicago, with a population of 200, became a town in 1833.

Daniel's youngest son, Daniel Jr., served in the Blackhawk War. Daniel was evidently facing hard times or lonely times when he was about 66 years old. Maybe he was tired of frontier life, and Jerusha had died and the kids were all grown up. He hung himself on January 15, 1832. When we visited Putnam County to research Daniel and his death, we were told recorded information of that year indicated it was one of the most severe winters in anybody's memory. Daniel's hanging created the first coroner's inquest in Putnam County. He had hung himself at his home. The coroner brought together a jury of 12 men to review his hanging and determined that his death was by his own hand. Because he committed suicide, he was buried out on the prairie in an unmarked grave.

Also we found two Aaron Gunn's in Putnam County, IL. One is Daniel's son; the other is from Massachusetts and not related, to our knowledge, except there was a branch of the Gunns who came to the New England area earlier. We need to go back to Caswell County now and introduce a new ancestral line—the Rice's.

CHAPTER 7

MORE REVOLUTIONARY WAR PATRIOTS

Our Rice Ancestors

James Rice was born 6 Aug 1736 in Caswell County. He married Alice Hix, who was born on April 8, 1742. He was listed along with Thomas Gunn and Capt. John Winn as a soldier in the French & Indian War (1754-1763). He was also declared a Patriot in the Revolutionary War because he gave material aid during the war. In 1777, James Rice was named a Justice in Caswell County, North Carolina. He was listed in Caswell County, NC land grants as receiving 100 acres in 1778, and 200 acres in 1779 located on County Line. On 20 Oct 1782, James Rice was granted another 200 acres on County Line Creek adjoining his old claim. On 19 September 1797, he sold 474 acres on County Line Creek.

James Rice and his wife Alice then moved west to Logan County, Kentucky where he was listed in the Logan County, KY surveyor's book B as owning 160 acres on the "Elk Fork of the Red (River) and B Whip" on 1 Dec 1798. James Rice owned land on the Red River in the southern part of Logan County near or on the Tennessee and Kentucky State line. Robertson County, Tennessee is just south of Logan County, Kentucky and the Red River mentioned in Logan County, Kentucky is the same river mentioned with the property of Daniel Gunn and his family in Tennessee. Daniel Gunn and James Rice were neighbors again. They had been neighbors in Caswell County, which made it possible for Joshua Morris Rice (youngest son of James Rice to find and marry Susanna Gunn, Daniel Gunn's second daughter). James Rice died 8 December 1809. His will was recorded in Deed Book "C" pages 80 – 83, in the County Clerk's office located in the Logan County Courthouse in Russellville, Kentucky.

James Rice's will lists his wife, Alice Hix as well as the following children:

1. Nancy (Anna) Rice b. about 1770 m. Jacob Miles
2. Jonathan Rice b. about 1772 m. Rebecca Hix
3. James Rice, Jr. b. about 1774
4. Francis Rice b. about 1776 m. Mary Gooch
5. Hiram Rice b. about 1778 m. Anne Hutchings
6. Sabra Rice b. about 1780 m. Gabriel Bailey
7. Martha (Patsy) Rice b. about 1784 m. George Bailey
8. Joshua Morris Rice b. about 1787 married 1808 Susanna Gunn (see Chapter 6)

Susanna Gunn Rice and Joshua Morris Rice had eight children:

1. Abner Stires Rice
2. James. M. Rice
3. Joshua M. Rice
4. Jerusha Rice
5. Sarah J. Rice
6. Susan Rice
7. Nancy Rice
8. Martha J. Rice

James Rice was listed in the DAR Patriot Index-Centennial Edition – part III, dated 1990. It also indicated his wife was Alice Hix. Joshua Morris Rice did not make the move to Logan County Kentucky with his parents. He stayed in Caswell County Virginia, and married Susanna Gunn about 1808. When his father, James Rice, died he gave his brother, Francis, power of attorney on 13 April 1810 to represent him in his father's estate settlement.

CHAPTER 8

THE RICE FAMILY MOVES WEST

Joshua Morris Rice and Susanna Gunn Rice

Joshua Morris Rice and Susanna Gunn Rice (Chapter 6 & 7) moved from Caswell County, North Carolina to Robertson County, TN sometime before 1810. The book "History of Perry County," Volume 1 – 1988 indicated they were married in 1808 and they had eight children: (these names may not be in birth order)

1. Abner Stires Rice was born 28 Feb 1810 in Robertson County, TN.
2. James M. Rice
3. Joshua M. Rice
4. Jerusha Rice
5. Sarah J. Rice
6. Susan Rice
7. Nancy Rice
8. Martha J. Rice

Robertson County, TN. Deed Book "O" p. 19 indicated Abner Stires Rice bought 47 acres from Hiram Rice on 15 Sept 1818. We found in "The Abstract of Equity Cases – Vol. 1. Logan County p. 39 that on 24 Oct 1815, Joshua and his brother Francis were involved in legal action with a Beverly A. Allen (a surveyor) over ownership of 200 acres. The case was in court for nearly three years and the action contains approximately 38 pages. In the "History of Randolph, Monroe, and Perry Counties, Illinois, dated 1883," we're told Joshua M. Rice emigrated from Tennessee to Illinois in 1829 where he raised one crop. He then moved to Township 4 in 1830. Perry County is located south of Washington County and was created by an act of the General Assembly at Vandalia in Feb 1827. These early settlers learned from the Indians the art of tanning deerskins. They made their own hunting shirts, leather breeches and moccasins. William Hutchings had the first land entries in the precinct: 16 May 1833, he entered the E. half of the N.E. quarter of section 24, 80 acres on March 1, 1837. John Hutchings entered the N.E. quarter of the S.E. quarter of section 24, 40 acres on 15 April 1837. Joshua M. Rice entered the N. half of the S.W. quarter of Section 1, 80 acres. He taught school, was active in politics and served as Assessor and County Collector in Perry County. Joshua became very prominent in politics, so much so that he was nearly killed one night from ambush.

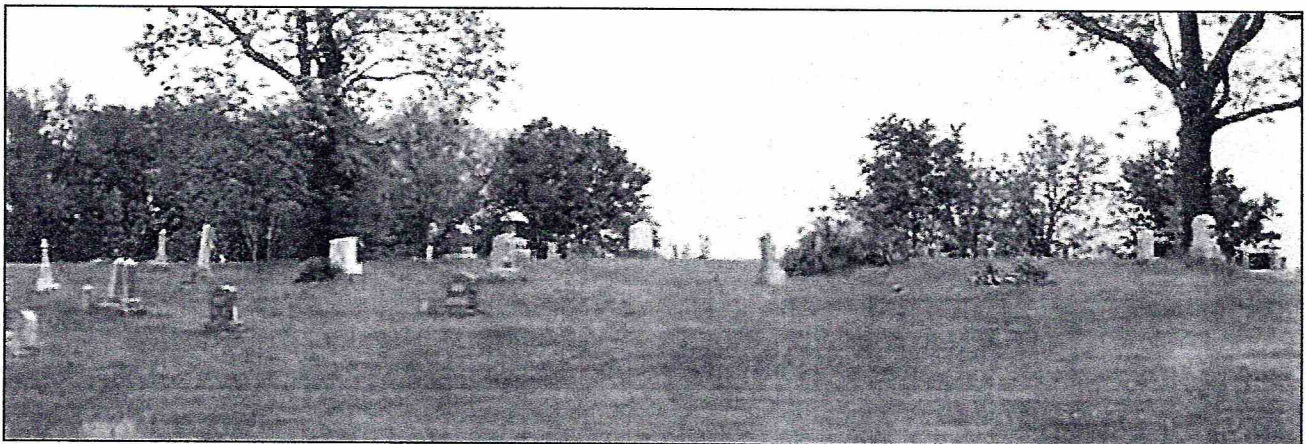

We received 37 pages titled "Voices from the Dump." These were early letters saved from destruction in the local dump, by Janet Hutchings Amelunke (then of Louisville, KY). One of the letters was from Joshua M. Rice to a Dr. John D. Burklow of Perry County. I'll lift several paragraphs from his letter. The letter was dated 22 January, 1842.

"I had walked outside the gate about 9 o'clock at night and was returning as I turned myself round to shut the gate I saw a man walking from the bushes towards the smokehouse and at the same moment I saw a lad at the bushes and another man at the corner of the smokehouse. Both the man had something in their hands like guns and as the walking man drew near to the man standing at the corner of the house they both withdrew behind the house out of my sight and I walked 4 or 5 steps towards the dwelling house and the gun fired at the same corner of the house where

I saw the man standing I saw no person after the gun fired. There was one ball passed through the breast of my coat and 8 small shot entered my coat, 4 of which were picked out of my coat some days afterwards.” He went on to discuss other business with Dr. Burklow and said, “If you would be so good as to favor me with an answer to this, direct to Williams post office Christian City, KY and please mail your letter at any other post office but Pinckneyville or Hawkinses for with the Whigs I fear is the ground roots of all my troubles, no more of this”.

To help you fully appreciate this episode let me frame it in some historical facts. As noted in the above letter written in 1842, Joshua M. Rice was nearly killed in an ambush because of his involvement in politics. During this same time period—1837 to 1846, Abraham Lincoln lived in Springfield, Illinois serving as a “circuit riding” lawyer and then to Washington, D.C. as the Illinois Representative before becoming our 16th President. Lincoln was a member of the Whig Party, and Joshua M. Rice blamed the Whigs for the attack on him. The Whig Party later became the Republican Party. I guess our grandfather, Joshua M. Rice was a Democrat. On 18 January, 1842 he sold 110 acres in Perry Co. After that he lived in Hopkins Co., Kentucky. On 9 May, 1842 he transferred property to his son Abner Stires Rice. On 15 March, 1843 Joshua M. Rice bought 70 acres on Buffalo Creek in Hopkins Co., Kentucky. Joshua M. Rice and his wife, Susanna, are both listed on the 1850 U.S. Census in Hopkins Co., Kentucky. His son, Joshua M. Rice, age 24, and his wife Nancy A., age 22 with son William M. 3 years old and Sarah A. 2 ½ years old were living next door. According to the census some of the neighbors living nearby were Abner Gunn and wife Susan & family, Allen Gunn and wife Nancy & family, and Thomas Gunn and wife, Mary and family. These family names have remained together through each new area the family has settled, indicating that the families moved together and were connected as family.

Joshua M. Rice died in 1854. We had believed he had died and was buried in Hopkins Co., Kentucky. Again, we received more help from Janet Hutchings Amelunke. She has seen and verifies the fact that an old book from the 1880’s states “Those buried in the Concord Baptist Cemetery, June 3, 1882, as far as known.” Joshua and Susanna are both listed in it. Sometime between 1850 and 1854, they returned to “Three Mile Prairie.” (The Old Concord Baptist Cemetery is located approximately 1 mile south of the Dubois Road and ¼ mile to the east of #127. It is back of the old Ama O. Jones farm house area and is being well maintained). This old Concord Baptist cemetery is the final resting place for several generations of Hutchings, Jones, Rice, and Dempsay families as well as many other early settlers of the area. (See Appendix A for more about Old Concord Baptist Cemetery.)

CHAPTER 9

OUR TENNESSEE ANCESTORS

Abner Stires Rice and Lucinda Hull Rice

We're calling this chapter "Our Tennessee Ancestors" because we are introducing Abner Stires Rice, the first of two ancestors who were born in Tennessee. In a later chapter, we will introduce our second ancestor born in Tennessee, his name was Thomas H. B. Jones. Our source for this information is the "1979 Washington County History" book. (The book is in our family collection).

Abner Stires Rice was born in Robertson Co., Tennessee, on February 23, 1810. His parents were Joshua Morris Rice and Susanna Gunn Rice (Chapter 8). In 1830, Abner S. Rice moved to Illinois to the area now known as Rice. Later that same year his father, Joshua Morris Rice, joined him, bringing Abner's younger brothers and sisters (James M., Joshua, Jerusha, and Sarah J.) with him to settle in the same general area.

Abner Stires Rice was a soldier with Company E. 3rd Regiment 3rd Brigade of the Illinois Mounted Volunteers during the Black Hawk War and participated in the Battle of Bad Axe. The Black Hawk War covered the area from Putnam County, Illinois to Dixon, Illinois into Southern Wisconsin. When his brother-in-law, Alexander Hutchings was killed, Abner returned to Washington County.

On October 27, 1833 he married Lucinda R. Hull. (Their marriage license is recorded in Perry County, Illinois). Abner was also a farmer and served as a deacon of the Concord Baptist Church. Three of Abner and Lucinda's sons served in the Union Army during the Civil War.

The will of Abner S. Rice indicates he died at home on or about December 3, 1884. (Perry County, Illinois Box 374, file 1529 Circuit Clerk). We need to resolve questions that come up on his will. He identifies his widow as "Sarah Rice." We know Lucinda Hull died November 2, 1881. It appears Abner remarried.

Abner and Lucinda Rice had seven children as follows:

1. Alexander Rice- born 1 September 1834—189?

Married Mary A., they had two children, as follows:

1. Mary J. Rice, born 1868, graduated Ewing College
2. Alexander Z. Rice, born 1871, attended law school in Valparaiso, Indiana
2. Richard M. Rice - born 11 October 1836 died 16 February 1913 in Washington County, lived in Mud Creek, he served 3 yrs in Co. J. 8th Regiment Illinois Infantry Civil War
3. James M. Rice- 1838-1892 served as soldier for 4 years, died in Texas
4. Zebedee H. Rice- 1841-1905 served in Co. A of 38th & Co. I of the 80th Ill. Reg.

Married Susan Hutchings and they had eight children:

1. Andrew Rice
2. Mimi Rice (McCormick)
3. Lucinda Rice (Hodges)
4. Wesley Rice
5. Celia Jane Rice
6. Mary Etta Rice
7. Cassie Rice
8. Alexander Rice (Susan died in 1881 shortly after birth of last child)

Zebedee re-married to Julia Ragland McCune Hall, they had three children:

1. Julia Ann Rice
2. Zebedee A. Rice
3. Ethel Rice
5. Nancy Rice – born 1843 married Dr. T. A. Holman
6. Sabria B. Rice – born January 31, 1844 in Washington Co. IL, died June 25, 1919

The spelling of her name is erratic, the attorney drafting her father's will spelled it Sebia, it is frequently spelled Sabra but it is officially spelled Sabria on her marriage license when she married Elijah J. Jones (see Chapter 12)

Elijah J. and Sabria Rice Jones had seven children:

1. Ama Oscar Jones born Nov 15, 1867, married Margaret Boyle Wilson
2. Thomas Jones born 1871, married Minnie Roberts
3. Zebedee Jones, born 1872, married Emma Larkin
4. Wesley Jones, born 1876, married Nancy Hutchings
5. Lucy Jones, born 1878, married George Johnson
6. Charles Jones, 1881, married Atha Hunter
7. Andrew Jones, born 1886, married Minnie Roberts (widow of Thomas)
7. Lucinda Rice - m. Joseph Folden

Abner Stires Rice and Lucinda Hull Rice are both buried in the old Concord Cemetery. (The Washington County history book 1979 listed a Dabrey B. which we believe should be Sebra, Sabra or Sabria. It also lists Sarah B. as a daughter although it is also possible he remarried and that is his widow's name.) Photos below were taken in Old Concord Cemetery.

Now for a little background on Abner Stires Rice's wife, Lucinda Hull According to the Perry County, Illinois, Vol. 1, 1988 – Lucinda Hull was born March 9, 1812 in Warren County, Tennessee. Her father was Richard Anderson Hull, born 1775 in North Carolina. He married Nancy Stockstill on April 1, 1807. Richard and Nancy Stockstill Hull met in Madison County, Kentucky when they stopped on their way from North Carolina to supply themselves with salt. There were salt springs a few miles south of Richmond, Kentucky. Richard Hull had taken the southern route from North Carolina. They were married in Richmond. Nancy Stockstill's father was not present to sign the marriage bond and her uncle signed for her.

Lucinda's father, Richard Hull, came to Tennessee a year after the organization of the state, after it separated from North Carolina. No records were found showing that Richard Hull had purchased any land, but he owned several parcels. Having come into the territory soon after the Seminole Indians had been driven out, he laid claim to lands formerly held by the Indians. It appeared that all he had to do was to find the land, obtain a proper description of the boundaries and enter the property in the county office. Many entries were found which were made by Richard. He was noted to be an excellent hunter, which was helpful since the early pioneers had to live off the land.

In 1830, Richard and Nancy Stockstill Hull left Warren County, Tennessee, and traveled to Perry County, Illinois with 12 of their 13 children. The oldest daughter, Sarah, married Benjamin Hammock and did not move with the family.

The children of Richard and Nancy Hull are listed as:

1. Sarah Hull, birthdate unknown, married Benjamin Hammock
2. Rebecca Hull, born 7 May 1809 married Samuel Etherton
3. Zebedee Hull, born 10 July 1810 married Fannie Pyle 2 February 1839
4. Lucinda Hull, born 9 March 1812 married Abner Stires Rice 27 October 1833
5. Elizabeth Hull, born 31 August 1813 married William Keeling 28 May
6. Delpha Hull, born 23 January 1816 married Samuel H. Eaton 6 February 1837
7. Benjamin Hull, born 23 May 1817 died 17 August 1847
8. Polly Hull, born 6 March 1819 married (1) John Gore 13 November 1842
re-married (2) Neely Perry
9. Major Hull, born 20 February 1820 married Margaret Rogers

10. Thomas Hull, born 3 April 1821
11. Nancy Minerva, born 8 June 1822 married Henry F. Hampleman
25 September 1842
12. Richard Hull, born 29 June 1825 died 24 December 1850
13. Rachael Hull, born 31 July (year unknown) married G.W. Murphy 25 Dec 1845

Their move from Warren County, Tennessee to Perry County, Illinois was in itself an extraordinary adventure, traveling several hundred miles by wagons with their fowl and livestock and with 12 children, the oldest only about 14 years old.

Nancy Stockstill Hull, Richard's wife, was born in 1787 in Baltimore, Maryland. We've not been able to identify her father in the Baltimore area. Maybe someone else can. We had indicated that Richard and Nancy met at a salt spring in Madison County, Kentucky and were married in Richmond, Kentucky on their way to Warren County, Tennessee. We know that her uncle had signed for her in her father's absence. Her uncle was Zebediah Stockstill (Madison County, Kentucky marriage records Vol 1 – 1786-1822). Her uncle's name is listed in the Warren County, Tennessee Will books 1-3 index. Uncle "Zeb" had moved to Warren County, Tennessee with Richard and Nancy Stockstill Hull but he did not move with them later when they moved to Perry County, IL. Richard Anderson Hull died 30 December 1838 in Perry County. Nancy Stockstill Hull died in 1879 also in Perry County, Illinois. We've not as yet discovered their final resting place.

CHAPTER 10

ANOTHER TENNESSEE ANCESTOR AND THE MYSTERY OF HIS NAME

Thomas Hardy Bryant Jones and Jerusha Gunn Jones

We had indicated at the beginning of the last chapter that we had two ancestors born in Tennessee. The second one was Thomas H.B. Jones, born 27 December 1804 in Robertson County, Tennessee. He was very difficult to research because he went by one of his middle names, Bryan or Bryant more than Thomas, probably because it seems every Jones family had a Thomas in it. Also, unfortunately, we were hampered by the fact that years ago somebody had removed the first 50 pages from the Robertson County Will Book. We had a challenge determining his full name, as well as who his parents and ancestors were. We actually have based all of our determinations about Thomas H. B. Jones on what is called a "preponderance of evidence." We have drawn together many pieces of circumstantial evidence that have been reviewed by independent genealogy resources. While there is no absolute "proof"... the "pre-ponderance of evidence" is fairly strong and well drawn to link our generations together. The next chapter presents all the evidence we have compiled.

Our breakthrough happened one day while researching in Robertson County, when we opened a deed book to page 17, and there it was ... his name ... Thomas Hardy Bryant Jones!!! The document on page 17 was dated August 1846, and was by James Redfern, identifying James M. Gunn as their "true and lawful attorney," to represent James Redfern, Thomas Hardy Bryant Jones and his wife, Jerusha, who were now in Washington County, Illinois, wanting to sell property in Robertson County, Tennessee. Note this was attested to by Eli J. Hutchings and Mary Jones. Eli J. Hutchings was a Justice of the Peace for Washington County, Illinois.

Thomas H.B. Jones married Jerusha Gunn, daughter of Daniel and Jerusha Winn Gunn (Chapter 6) on 11 December 1827. This was Jerusha's 2nd marriage. Her first marriage was to James Redfern, also of Robertson County, Tennessee. He died before 1824. She and James Redfern had one son named James Redfern, who was the same James Redfern listed on the deed document where we discovered Thomas Hardy Bryant Jones' full name and was also named as stepson in T.H.B. Jones' will. The first identification of Thomas H.B. is in the Robertson County, Tennessee "Minute Book AA" dated 2 February 1827. "Ordered that Thomas Gunn oversee the road from Williams Mill to Solomon Farthings and that he with following Asa Mason, Jesse Denton, John ?, William Mason, Alexander Mason, Grandberry Mason, Redding Lawrence, Eaton Lawrence, Lewis Fletcher, Clayton Lockout, Randolph Britt, C. Guin, James Redfern, Exum Lawrence, William Lawrence, George H. Hiltabrand, Daniel Gunn, Jesse Williams, Norfleet Pope, William Irwin, John Price, Kinchen C. Mason, John Eddings, Orin Taylor, Mills Taylor, Byran Jones (author's note: document has misspelled Bryant Jones) and Dempsey Mason keep said road in repair according to law."

Thomas H.B. and Jerusha Jones had the following children:

1. Amanda J. Jones— born 7 Nov 1828 in Robertson Co, Tennessee, died 27 May 1880.
Married Wesley W. Hutchings, son of William Hutchings and Celia (Selah) Jones
18 December 1843, Washington Co, Illinois. Buried in old Concord Cemetery.
In 1879, only five of Wesley and Amanda Hutchings' twelve children were living:
 1. Susan Frances Hutchings who married Zebedee H. Rice.
 2. William M. Hutchings married Mary Jane McCune.

3. Jerusha Hutchings 1848-1851
 4. Wesley Hutchings April 1852-August 1852
 5. Celia Hutchings 1853-1869
 6. Amanda E. Hutchings who married Robert Dempsay
 7. Kinchen K. Hutchings married Louise J. Cofful
 8. Henry B. (youngest son) unmarried in 1879.
 9. Andrew A. Hutchings born and died 1862
 10. Etta M. Hutchings 1863-1864
 11. Ella C. Hutchings 1865-1866
 12. Carroll E. Hutchings born and died 1868
2. William B. Jones – born ca 1830 Robertson Co, TN, died 1878 Washington Co, IL married Mary Ann Morris
1. John W. Jones, born 1849
 2. Mary J. Jones, born 1851
 3. Jesse Jones, born 1852 married Margaret A.
 4. Elizabeth Jones, born 1854
 5. William J. Jones, born 1856
 6. Hugh Chamberlain Jones, born 1859 died 1934 married Elizabeth Steele
 7. James Jones, 1861
 8. Elvanus Jones, 1867 married Emma Lueker
 9. Nancy L. Jones, 1869
 10. Mandy Jones, 1871
 11. Nettie Jones, 1875
3. Harriet W. Jones – born ca 1834, died before 1880.
 1st marriage: John Hale, Nashville 2nd marriage: John Clark, Kansas
 Hale children listed in Thomas H.B. Jones' will: Amanda E., Susan C.
1. Mearsha Hale 1852
 2. Thomas Hale 1854
 3. Jonathan Hale 1857
 4. Jerusha Hale 1859
 5. Amanda Hale 1862
 6. Susan Hale 1862
- Clark children in Thomas H. B. Jones' will: Frank, Emma.
7. Francis Clark 1871
4. Nancy Jones – born ca 1835 in Washington County, Ill. Married George Moore
5. Kinchen W. Jones – born 29 November 1837, died 30 December 1902.
 Was in 1850 census as 12 year old, not in 1871 will.
 K.W.Jones buried in old Concord Cemetery, married Jane Rule
1. Thomas Jones 1861
 2. Luella Jones 1863
 3. Adeline Jones 1865
 4. Louisa Jones 1867-1895

5. Etta Jones 1869
6. Walter Jones 1876
7. Scott Jones 1877
8. Bertha Jones 1880
- K.W. Jones re-married Mary Hale
9. Ollie Jones
10. Evelyn Jones

6. Bula Jones - born 1840 married Andrew Keith

7. John R. Jones born ca 1842 in Washington County, Illinois.
 married Mary H. Walls, served in Civil War
 moved to Jasper, Missouri
1. Edward Jones 1866
 2. Adeline Jones 1869

8. Elijah J. Jones – born 11 September 1843 in Washington Co., IL died 22 Sept 1905
 Married Sabria Rice on 06 September 1866 (see Chapter about Elijah J. Jones)
1. Ama Oscar Jones born Nov 15, 1867, married Margaret Boyle Wilson
 2. Thomas Jones born 1871, married Minnie Roberts
 3. Zebedee Jones, born 1872, married Emma Larkin
 4. Wesley Jones, born 1876, married Nancy Hutchings
 5. Lucy Jones, born 1878, married George Johnson
 6. Charles Jones, 1881, married Atha Hunter
 7. Andrew Jones, born 1886, married Minnie Roberts (widow of Thomas)

We cannot be sure when Thomas H.B. and Jerusha Gunn Jones moved from Robertson County, Tennessee to southern Illinois. The information we have indicates both Amanda and William were born in Robertson Co., Tennessee. We're not sure where Harriet was born in 1834, and we believe Nancy was born in Washington County, Illinois. If this information is correct the Thomas H.B. Jones family moved to Washington County, Illinois between 1830 and 1835. He acquired his first piece of state land in 1837.

A book published in 1968 titled "This is Washington County (its first 150 years 1818 – 1968)" provided this information. William Hutchings and Thomas H.B. felt there was a need of Baptist teaching, so in the fall of 1841, they called Peter Haggler to hold a revival. Early records show there were six charter members of the newly organized Concord Baptist Church. They were: John R. Hutchings; his wife, Deliah; Thomas H.B. Jones; his wife, Jerusha; Jordan Stiller; and his sister-in-law, Mary Stiller. John R. Hutchings was the first pastor. Eli Hutchings gave land for the cemetery and W.W. Hutchings donated the church site. The initial church was a small log building which was destroyed by fire and replaced with a frame structure. A third, still larger church was later built. It served until 1924, when the church relocated to a new location at Rice where it is still "teaching". It should also be noted that Abner S. Rice, along with Thomas H.B. and Andrew Slade, were the first deacons. "The people would come five, ten, even fifteen miles."

Thomas H.B. Jones wrote his will dated 4 March 1871. He died 23 May 1872. Jerusha Gunn Jones died 22 January 1876. Both Thomas and Jerusha are buried in the old Concord Cemetery which is located on the old family homestead. Their graves are marked by a field stone with their names carved in the rock.

CHAPTER 11

PROOF OR PRE-PONDERANCE OF EVIDENCE

Connecting the Early Jones' to Thomas H. B. Jones

By Norma Bray Olson

When we discovered Thomas Hardy Bryant Jones' full name it instantly rang a bell in my memory. There were two familiar names there: Thomas Bryant, a name first recognized back in Isle of Wight Co., VA, then in Edgecomb Co, NC, and Hardy Jones, who first showed up in a 1781 real estate record in Edgecomb Co, NC. We took both of the names as a clue to the identity of Thomas H. B. Jones. We had seen the will of Hardy Jones dated in 1796 in Edgecomb Co. NC listing his sons as Abraham, Jesse, Reuben, John and Ely, and his daughters Cristal Elexander and Elizabeth Baggett. We knew Elizabeth Jones had married Grandberry Baggett. We had a statement from Edgecomb Co., NC stating that Grandberry Baggett had bought a horse at a William Jones estate sale in 1796 handled by Jesse Jones and Abraham Jones as administrators.

William Jones did not leave a will but we had found his estate sale records in the state library in North Carolina with Jesse and Abraham Jones in charge of settling his estate. This helps determine who his neighbors were in Edgecomb Co., NC, and who owed him some money as well as the cost of a plank for the casket. Again we recognized the names as they appeared. Now, how did we come to the conclusion we did about the closeness of the Thomas Bryant family and Hardy Jones family? We knew that Hardy Jones wife, Hanner, was a sister of Faithful Bryant, who was the wife of Thomas Bryant. And Jesse Jones married Nancy Bryant, and Delilah Bryant married Noah Woodward. Jesse Jones was the executor of Faithful Jones estate with her sister, Hanner, as a witness.

The next step was looking at Isle of Wight Co., VA marriages where we found the marriage in 1726 of Joseph Jones and Elizabeth Kinchen, sister of William Kinchen. (will book 3, p. 43 & will book 4 pg. 113) We also found Joseph Exum and Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, relict (widow) of Joseph Jones, 1734. (will book 4, p. 72, Southampton Co. DB 2, p. 173) The marriage of Elizabeth Kinchen and Joseph Jones and her later marriage to Joseph Exum became very interesting because subsequent generations in the Jones and Exums have continued to use Elizabeth's maiden name of Kinchen as first names as well as middle names. The name was even found within neighboring families in the area. The name Kinchen commemorates Elizabeth's father, William Kinchen, Sr.

Examining wills in Isle of Wight Co. VA first led us to John Jones' will written in 1697 with legatees: son Abraham land in upper Parish on the Blackwater, daughter Ann, wife of John Barnes, daughter's son John Barnes; son John, wife, Ann 200 acres in lower Parish. Executors: wife, Ann who died July 6, 1697, ___ R ___, witnesses Joshua Turner Sr., Joshua Turner, Jr. and John Blake. We believe this John Jones was the father of Joseph Jones. (p. 385 Wills and Adm. of Isle of Wight Co. VA 1647-1800, Blanche Adams Chapman, 1973). Ann Jones' will came along next. Ann's legatees were son, John, 300 acres purchased from Edmund Porter, John Portis, Sr. and Henry Martin, son Abraham, son John's three children, Joseph, John and Ann, daughter Ann Barnes, Captain Arthur Smith and Henry Applewaite, overseers. Ann died April 15, 1704, will settled. Jan 9, 1706/7. Witnesses: John Watts, John Duke, Henry Applewaite. (op. cit. p. 477). Notice that John did not have children listed in his father's 1697 will, while several years later in his mother's 1704 will, John has three children, Joseph, John and Ann. The oldest son was probably Joseph, who married Elizabeth Kinchen in 1726.

The next death to be recorded for the Jones' family was Joseph Jones. Legatees were wife Elizabeth, son William, to Francis Ward the land he lives on if he pays the balance to my son William, daughter Mary. The executors of his will were listed as Elizabeth, John Exum, John Dunkley and

William Jones. Died Dec. 5, 1725, R Sept 25, 1727. Elizabeth was the daughter of William Kinchen Sr. and Elizabeth Ruffin Kinchen. (op. cit. p. 49)

William Kinchen was the next one listed in Chapman's book. William Kinchen Sr.'s legatees were: son Mathew, daughter Elizabeth Exum, grandson Wm. Jones, daughter Martha Garrell, daughter Patience Taylor and her husband Etheldred Taylor, Sarah Goodwin, granddaughter Goodwin, son William, wife Elizabeth, grandson William Kinchen, granddaughter Mary Jones. Ex: Mathew Kinchen. William Kinchen died August 13, 1734 – July 28, 1735. Witnesses to his will were Arthur Purcell, John Dunkley, and Henry Flowers. (op.cit. 73)

I don't know exactly when Elizabeth Exum died, but I don't believe Elizabeth Exum was still living when her second husband, Joseph Exum, died about 1770 in Nash Co., NC. Boddie's book, Historical Southern Families, Vol. VI p. 334-35 gave a bit more information about Joseph Exum, son of William and Susannah Exum, who married Elizabeth about 1730 (according to Boddie) which differs from the marriage record mentioned earlier of 1726 found in the Isle of Wight records. The Exums moved to NC about 1749. After the birth of five daughters, they named their first son, Colonel Kinchen Exum. He was the first child given the middle name Kinchen after his grandfather, Elizabeth's father. We believe the first name, Colonel was his given name and not a military title. His wife is unknown.

The fifth son of Colonel Kinchen Exum was also named Kinchen and he was born in 1816 and died in 1867 in Yazoo Co. Mississippi. His oldest brother was Benjamin Exum, he was born in 1807, then later moved to Clark Co. Kentucky and married Emily Hieronymous, daughter of Benjamin Hieronymous and his wife, Mary Bush, daughter of Captain William Bush, who came to Boonesboro, Kentucky with a group of settlers led by Daniel Boone. Benjamin Exum's fourth son was named James Kinchen and was born March 8, 1841, he later became a Confederate soldier who was wounded at the Battle of Shiloh and died on April 16, 1862.

The Kinchen name continued as Kinchen Exum and Margaret Williams named their fifth son, Edward Exum, who in turn named his sixth son, Kinchen William Exum, born April 30, 1848. In 1875, Kinchen William Exum married Susan Virginia Ledbetter, (the eldest daughter of Richard and Martha Ledbetter and granddaughter of John Middleton Henricks and his wife Susan Bull), they also named their sixth son Kinchen William. What an interesting pattern of naming the sons in the family!

Before we go on to discuss the Kinchens in the Jones line, let me go to the Estate Records in Deed Books of Nash Co. NC, 1781-1897 by Joseph W. Watson. In Deed Book 14, p. 137, it states allotment of dower to the widow of Joseph Exum, decided by jury May term 1800, July 8, 1800 a tract of 124-2/3 acres, registered Dec. 8, 1831. Did you note that the widow was not named? Was this Elizabeth or was this someone named Priscilla, who was named with Joseph on deeds, etc. in the 1770's? In Deed Book 14, p. 130, Division of estate of Joseph Exum, decided by commissioners June 24, 1796. The heirs were widow, (again not named), Polly Exum, Mourning Exum, Patsy Exum, William Exum, Kinchen Exum, Ethelred Exum and Charlotte Exum. In Deed Book 14, p. 289, the commissioner divided Joseph Exum's lands between Kinchen, Ethelred and William Exum.

Now, let's get to the Jones' family Kinchens ... early in our genealogy research we noticed the interesting name. Some of the names we could easily connect. We knew about Ely Jones, born in 1755, who was the father of Kinchen Jones, who was killed in the War of 1812. But the other Kinchen's were a little harder to put together.

We knew Noah and Delilah Bryant Woodard named a son, Kinchen. Amanda Jones and her husband, Wesley Hutchings of Washington/Perry Co. in Illinois named a son, Kinchen K. Hutchings who married Louise Coffield. Thomas H. B. Jones and his wife, Jerusha had a son named Kinchen W. Jones whose first wife was named Jane. He was not in Thomas H. B.'s will, but he bought at the estate sale. There was also Kinchen Mason who was the son of Isaac Mason and came with his Robertson Co. TN friend, Thomas H. B. Jones, to Nashville, Illinois. There was also a Kinchen Taylor but I don't recognize his parents.

This quest for Kinchen started when I first saw the marriage of Joseph Jones and Elizabeth Kinchen during my research ten years back, in 1995 while looking at Isle of Wight marriages. Not all the facts were in so I held off on believing what we had found. From here, I took on the challenge of placing where these Jones' lived in Edgecomb Co. NC.

In 1744, William Jones and Sarah Jones were witnesses for John Jones, 22 Oct 1746. Was this Sarah the wife of William Jones signing on as a witness with her husband? Deed book 98, p Thomas Teat of Edgecomb Co. to Ely Jones (This is the first mention of Ely) of same, May 24, 1781 for 5000 lbs. tract on Buck Meadows Branch and Bee Tree Branch witnessed by William Teat, Reuben Jones (brother of Ely) and Hardy Jones (father of Ely). Adjacent Jeremiah Hillard, William Taylor (deceased) , Miles Taylor.

Edgecomb Co. NC Deed Book 8 p. 570, Eli Jones to Miles Taylor of same, Feb 13, 1796, for 8 lbs, a tract of ? acres of North side of Great Branch and the county line adjacent Jonas Whitley, witness Cullen Andrews.

We looked at the Jones and recognized the connection to the Thomas Bryant's from early Isle of Wight Virginia to Edgecomb North Carolina. The names of Braswell, Stallings, Woodard, Hutchings, Phillips, Andrews, Hillard, Taylor, Fort, Sugg, Mason, Exums, Kinchen, and Dortch came from Edgecomb Co. NC to Robertson Co. Tennessee.

Hutchings was an important name that came up in Edgecomb Co, NC when William Hutchings married Selah Jones, who we believe was the daughter of Eli Jones. Selah was born in Edgecomb CO.,

NC and moved to Robertson CO., TN. The Eli Jones, Kinchen Jones and William Hutchings were the first three names on the handwritten 1812 Enumeration list of Captain Meredith Walton. The three families settled in the northeast corner of Robertson County.

Kinchen Jones had been married and had four children when he went off to War in 1813. He became ill and was left at Camp Mondaville by order of General Taylor. Upon his death they sent his children payment for his seven months and six days served, he received $59.85. William Hutchings served as executor for the Kinchen Jones estate. Robertson Co Minutes, Book 2, p 222-3. George Sigler (husband of Elizabeth Jones, Kinchen's oldest daughter), Delila Jones, Reuben Jones, James Jones received $77 for their father's 35 acre grant from the State of Tennessee. Witnesses were Eli Jones and John Hutchings. Eli was the father of Kinchen Jones, John Hutchings was the brother of William Hutchings and John Sigler was the father of George Sigler.

The sale of Kinchen Jones (deceased) contained the names of Selah Hutchings- one purchase, then Eli Jones- four purchases including a fur hat, Grandberry Baggett- two purchases, Mathew Rose- two purchases, Theophilious Morgan- one purchase, William Hutchings- one purchase, James Jones- five purchases. Shortly after the estate was settled Eli Jones passed away. Grandberry Baggett and Eli's wife, Susannah, were the executors. His will was not settled until about 1830.

William Hutchings and his family, plus Delila Jones (youngest daughter of Kinchen Jones) moved to southern Illinois in the area of Perry Co. and Washington Co. I believe Selah Jones and William Hutchings were Aunt and Uncle of Delila Jones. She later married Wesley Hutchings, son of Selah and William Hutchings. They named one of their sons, Kinchen Hutchings.

We feel this tract goes way across Isle of Wight, VA., Edgecomb Co/ Nash Co., NC, Robertson Co. TN and then on to Washington/Perry Co, IL. The line started with John and Ann Jones in Isle of Wight in Virginia.

Joseph Jones and Elizabeth Kinchen (daughter of William Kinchen and Elizabeth Ruffin Kinchen) had a son named William who was mentioned in Joseph's mother's will in Joseph's will and in William Kinchen's will. William Jones moved to the Edgecomb area and received a patent of 150 acres. William's will was not available, but we found enough to realize that his son was Hardy Jones of Edgecomb Co, NC. There are several instances which demonstrate the closeness of Hardy Jones' family to Thomas Bryant's family: Hardy's wife, Hanner, was sister to Faithful Bryant, Thomas's wife ... Hanner was witness to Faithful's will and Jesse (the son of Hardy) was executor of Faithful's will.

Grandberry Baggett had married Elizabeth Jones (daughter of Hardy Jones). Hardy had another daughter, Cristel Elexander. Grandberry bought a horse in William Jones' estate sale.

Ely Jones moved to Robertson Co. TN in 1796, as did many of his neighbors. Ely's will was made and turned in to Robertson Co., TN but someone cut out 50 pages of the will book and both of the wills from Ely and Kinchen are missing. We cannot provide a complete list of Ely's children, but we know James Jones is a son, because he was a legatee in Ely's estate settlement. Selah Hutchings, wife of William Hutchings, because of her relationship with Kinchen's children leads us to believe that she was a daughter of Ely. Ely Jones along with Selah and William Hutchings founded Concord Baptist Church in Southern Illinois. James Jones, Selah Jones Hutchings and Kinchen Jones were the three oldest children of Ely and perhaps were children of a first wife. Perhaps Susannah could have been his second wife because of the vast difference in the children's ages. John was born in 1797 and Thomas Hardy Bryant Jones was born in 1804.

ESTATE RECORDS, WILLS, DEEDS AND ABSTRACTS TO SUPPORT CONNECTING EARLY JONES TO THOMAS H. B. JONES

This material has been collected to show relationships of the Jones, the Bryants, the Exums, the Baggetts, the Hutchings and others in the Isle of Wight, VA, in Edgecomb and Nash Counties in NC. There are estate records of the early Jones in the Isle of Wight County and Wm. Kinchen who was Elizabeth Kinchen Jones' father. I searched real estate records in Edgecomb and Nash Counties looking for neighbors, relatives, etc. In Edgecomb Co., NC, we have William Jones (who was mentioned in his grandmother's will) receiving a land grant in 1740 – on the North side of Tar River right up to Hardy Jones and his sons in Edgecomb Co. Hardy Jones' sons, Jesse and Abraham were administrators of Hardy Jones' estate as well as William Jones's estate in 1796, both estates were settled in 1798.

Based on what I have found, I believe...

John Jones and wife, Ann were parents of Joseph Jones.

Joseph Jones and wife Elizabeth Kinchen were parents of Wm. Jones.

William Jones and wife Anne were parents of Hardy Jones.

Hardy Jones and wife Hanner (Hannah?) were parents of Ely Jones.

Ely Jones and wife Susannah were parents of Thomas Hardy Bryant Jones in 1804. (This son went by the name Bryant on most documents, until we found his name on estate settlements for James Redfern. Redfern was Jerusha Redfern Jones' first husband before she married Thomas H. B. Jones)

One of Joseph and Elizabeth Exum's sons was named Colonel Kinchen Exum; wife was unknown.

Kinchen Exum and his wife Margaret Williams Exum had a son named Edward Exum (born 1813)
He and his wife Mary Day Exum named their son , Kinchen William Exum.

Benjamin Exum and his wife, Emily Hieronymous had a son named James Kinchen Exum. He was wounded at Shiloh during the Civil War and died in 1862. He did not marry.

Kinchen William Exum and his wife Susan Virginia Ledbetter Exum named their last son Kinchen William Exum

There may be more "Kinchen" Exums that I haven't found.

Here are the Jones' Kinchens.

Ely Jones was the father of the Kinchen Jones who was killed in the War of 1812.

Noah and Delilah Woodard named a son Kinchen.

Amanda Jones and her husband Wesley Hutchings named a son Kinchen Hutchings.

Kinchen W. Jones was a son of Thomas Hardy Bryant Jones and wife Jerusha Jones.

Kinchen Mason was the son of Isaac Mason.

There was also a Kinchen Taylor in this time period but I'm not sure of the parent.

Elijah J. Jones' name is on the Civil War honor roll list produced by the Illinois Veterans Commission dated 1 October 1956. He enlisted on March 2, 1865 in Dixon, Illinois at the age of twenty three as a private in the 80th Regiment of the Illinois Infantry. He signed up for one year. He served in the 80th Regiment and was first located at Camp Butler. After Lee's surrender, Elijah's 80th Regiment mustered out on June 10th at Camp Harker in Tennessee and he was transferred to the 38th Regiment. His new regiment traveled by the Steamer Palestine down to New Orleans, arriving on June 25th, then by another Steamer, the Clinton, to Indianola, Texas. From there they marched to Green Lake, continuing on a few weeks later to Victoria, Texas. He was mustered out in Victoria, Texas on March 2, 1866. Later that same year he married Sabria B. Rice on September 6th.

Elijah probably didn't experience many battlefields but he had lasting reminders of his time in the service because his health was never the same again. He suffered from chronic diarrhea, rheumatism and malaria type symptoms from the late spring of 1865 until his death.

OUR IRISH ANCESTORS

Boyles, Andersons, and Wilsons

Our Irish ancestors can be traced back to several locations with interesting sounding names like Ballyguddan on the Banks of the Roe, Dungiven, and Londonderry. Dorrington Boyle is a name that goes back several generations in Ireland all the way back to Ballyguddan on the Banks of the Roe. We have this family history provided by Mrs. David (Betty) Jones:

Dorrington Boyle of Ballyguddan on the Banks of the Roe, Ireland

David Boyle, married a Miss Stewart

Dorrington Boyle, married Margaret Lowry

David Boyle, born 1779, in Dungiven, Ireland, two wives:

5. William Boyle, born 1825, died 2 June 1860, buried in London, England

6. Dorrington Boyle, married Miss Wilson

7. Eliza Boyle, died 1896

James Anderson was born about 1802 in Donegal Co., Ireland and died 24 November 1856 in Washington Co. IL. He married Margaret Boyle in 1839. Margaret Boyle was born 10 January 1818 in Londonderry Co. Ireland and died 6 March 1891 in Washington Co. IL. James and Margaret Boyle Anderson came to America with their six children in 1854, landing in New York. They came west by way of rivers, arriving in Louisville, Kentucky, and then to St. Louis. From there they were hauled to Perry County, Illinois by two peddler wagons. They settled on a farm of about 120 acres, where they grubbed out timber to build a house, have firewood, and create land to cultivate. Two years later James died, leaving Margaret with six young children.

James and Margaret Boyle Anderson had six children:

1. George Anderson, born 5/4/1840 died 1881, married Iada Palmer
2. Rebecca Marie Anderson, born 29 May 1842, died 21 March 1916, married Henry R. Wilson II (Rebecca was twelve yrs old when her family came to America)

Rebecca Marie Anderson was born 29 May 1842 in Londonderry, Ireland. She came to America with her parents in 1854, when she was twelve years old. She married Henry R. Wilson II about 1867. Their license was obtained in Perry County, Illinois. Henry R. Wilson II was born 23 January 1834 in Ireland.

Henry and Rebecca Anderson Wilson were married 13 Feb 1867 and had seven children:

1. Sarah Wilson – born 30 July 1867, died 22 Dec 1887 Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery with her parents
2. Margaret Wilson– born 26 March 1869, died 26 June 1952, married Ama O. Jones
3. James Wilson – born 17 Nov 1870, died 7 May 1949, married Mattie Kimsey, one child
4. William Wilson – born 25, July 1872, died 1942, married Luvena Fullerton, two children
5. Henry Wilson, Jr. – born 1 July 1874, married Flossie Eldridge ca. 1896, one son
6. Rebecca Wilson – born 29 March 1877, died 1916, married Thomas McClurken, four children
7. Dora Wilson – born 23 Nov 1881, died 23 July 1940, married Albert Renner, three children

Henry R. Wilson II owned lots 1 and 2 section 16 and E ½ NE ¼ - NE ¼ section 15 in township 3 SR 3 – W 3 approximately 90 acres. He also was a business partner with P. William Miller. We believe that business was related to raising, training, or maybe racing horses. They lived in Perry County near the Duncan school just west of Rice where they boarded several teachers. The house was sold later to the Hunters. Henry died in his sleep at the age of 47, just seven months before his youngest daughter, Dora, was born. He was building an addition to the house at the time. His heirs are listed on his estate letters of administration, dated 26 July 1881. Rebecca Wilson died on 21 March 1916 in Washington County, Illinois. In her will, she listed her heirs as Mrs. A.O. Jones, James Wilson, W.J. Wilson, H.R. Wilson, and grandchildren: Dale, Bonalou, Ruth, and Irene McClurken.

Henry R. Wilson II, his wife, Rebecca Anderson Wilson, and daughter Sarah are buried in the Oak Grove Presbyterian Cemetery. Henry R. Wilson's father was also named Henry Wilson I and born about 1810 in Ireland. We've not found information regarding his marriage or his death.

The information for most of this chapter was found in the Washington County History Book, plus some extra photos and additional information from Mrs. David (Betty) Jones.

My Mom (Lucy Olson) told me once that her father, Ama, enjoyed horse racing before he married her mother, Maggie. She also indicated that Maggie asked him to give it up after they were married. Ama, like his father before him, was a farmer. He never owned a tractor though, instead, he plowed using horses that were so well trained they responded to his voice commands, leaving his hands free to guide the plow. The old horse barn had stalls for eight to ten horses. I remember my summers on the farm helping Uncle Charlie feed those horses.

I distinctly remember the aroma of the smokehouse and the hollyhocks that grew beside it. Life was difficult during the depression but the farm and garden provided food for the family to eat plus extra milk and eggs to sell. They also had a herd of red cows and a number of hogs. Grandma Maggie was always up early to bake bread and biscuits every morning. Grandpa Ama preferred biscuits though, so Maggie would bake him a batch every morning and keep them in the warming oven of the wood stove for the rest of the day.

Grandpa Ama was in charge of the farm and its operations, but he listened to Maggie when she offered her thoughts. It was the kind of marriage that required total commitment, love and respect. For Ama and Maggie Jones that happened for nearly sixty years. When Maggie passed away on the 26th of June in 1952, Ama followed her five days later on July 1st, 1952, just two months short of their 60th anniversary. Ama and Margaret Wilson Jones are both buried in the Masonic Cemetery in Nashville, Illinois.

APPENDIX A

THE OLD CONCORD CEMETERY

It was about 1841 when Eli Hutchings donated land to establish the Old Concord Cemetery. It is located approximately one half mile east of Illinois State Highway 127 and one mile south of the DuBois Road (R-15). It is located directly behind the property that at one time belonged to Ama O. Jones, and is accessible by a narrow gravel road from Highway 127.

We've found two lists of burials for the Old Concord Cemetery. One list gives information on the birth and death dates on the grave markers, while the other list locates the graves by tiers. We've inserted dates on the lists next to a few of our known ancestor's grave sites. No grave markers have been found for Joshua M. and Susanna Rice. We know from the tier lists where they should be located but unfortunately no trace of the grave markers remains.

During several recent visits we were pleased to see that the cemetery was well cared for and maintained by Clyde W. Dempsay. This cemetery represents so much of our family history. If you would like to contribute to the costs of maintaining it properly ...

APPENDIX B

Early Land Grants and Plats

Our early pioneer ancestors and their neighbors were always ready to pack-up and move on. They were among the earliest in Virginia and North Carolina, then on to Tennessee and finally Illinois. They grew tobacco in Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee, then switched crops to become grain farmers in Illinois. The primary reason they decided to settle in Southern Illinois was not because of the quality of farmland but because there was abundant availability of wild game to sustain them while they built their log homes. They had to clear land and “grub out” stumps in order to begin planting crops.

The Land Ordinance Act of 1785 provided that:

1. Land in the Northwest Territory should be surveyed before being offered for sale.
2. The area should be divided into squares, six miles on a side, called Congressional Townships, numbered from a baseline and meridian.
3. Each township should be subdivided on the mile lines into 36 sections and numbered.
4. Section 16 of each township sold at auction and the proceeds used by the settlers for providing public schools.

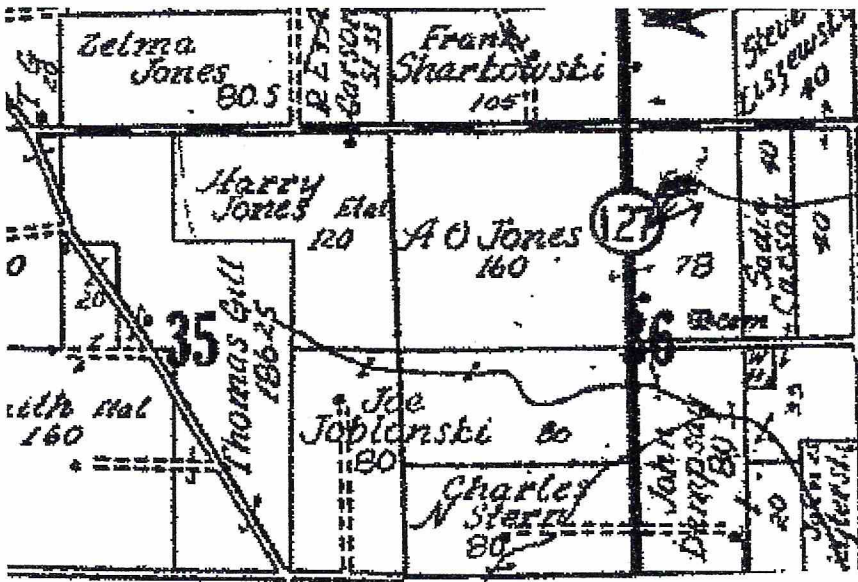

The Land Act of April 24, 1820 made it possible to buy land from the government for $1.25 per acre. Land offices were established in Kaskaskia, Shawneetown and Edwardsville to handle the sale of these lands. Our ancestors purchased their land in the Kaskaskia office. So with that bit of history out of the way, let's see who bought land according to the “Original Land Holders in Washington County” list:

1836	Eli J. Hutchings	SW SE	Sec 36 40
1836	Eli J. Hutchings	E NW	Sec 36 80
1837	Eli J. Hutchings	W NW	Sec 36 80
1837	William Hutchings	E NE	Sec 35 40
1837	William Hutchings	E SW	Sec 26 80
1837	Thomas H.B. Jones	SW SW	Sec 25 40
1838	Thomas H.B. Jones	SE SE	Sec 26 40
1840	Thomas H.B. Jones	E SW	Sec 25 80
1837	Arthur Dempsey	SE SE	Sec 35 40
1850	Arthur Dempsey	W NE	Sec 8 80
1850	Arthur Dempsey	E NW	Sec 8 80

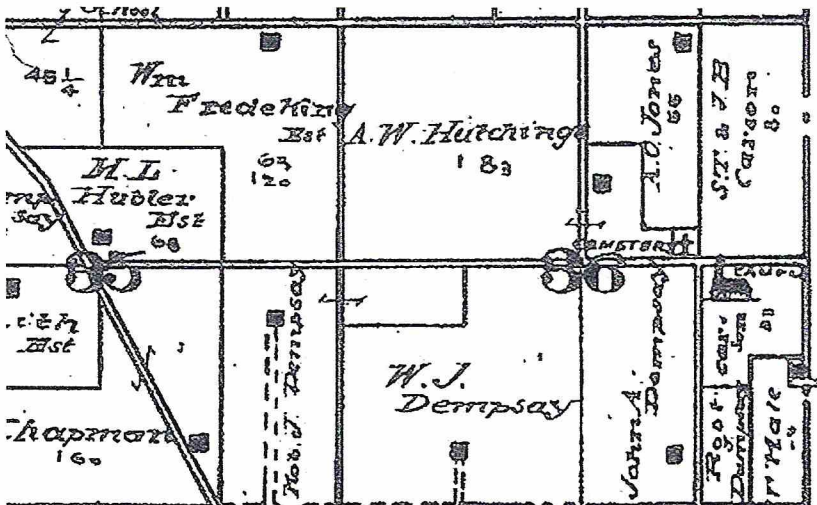

Eli J. Hutchings' property would eventually become the home site of the Ama O. Jones farm. Thomas H.B. Jones' property was on the north side of Dubois Road and west of State Road 127 or just north of Ama Jones' property. In his will, Thomas H.B. Jones left this property to Elijah J. Jones. William Hutchings' land would become part of the Harry and Zelma Dempsay Jones Farm. Arthur Dempsay, Great Grandfather of Zelma Dempsay Jones, was a neighbor to the south of Eli J. Hutchings.

These tracts of land are located in the lower right corner of the 1906 and 1952 Plats of Pilot Knob Township of Washington County. We were not able to find a list of land purchases for Perry County, but we have included a 1853 Plat of Beaucoup Township of Perry County. The property in Section #36 (lower right corner) of the Pilot Knob Township borders Section #1 (upper right corner) of Beaucoup Township.

The Ancestor Charts on the following pages show diagrams of our direct line of ancestors taking the Jones family back through eleven generations, from the children of Ama Oscar and Margaret (Maggie) Wilson Jones in the late 1800's and early 1900's back through several centuries to the mid 1500's.

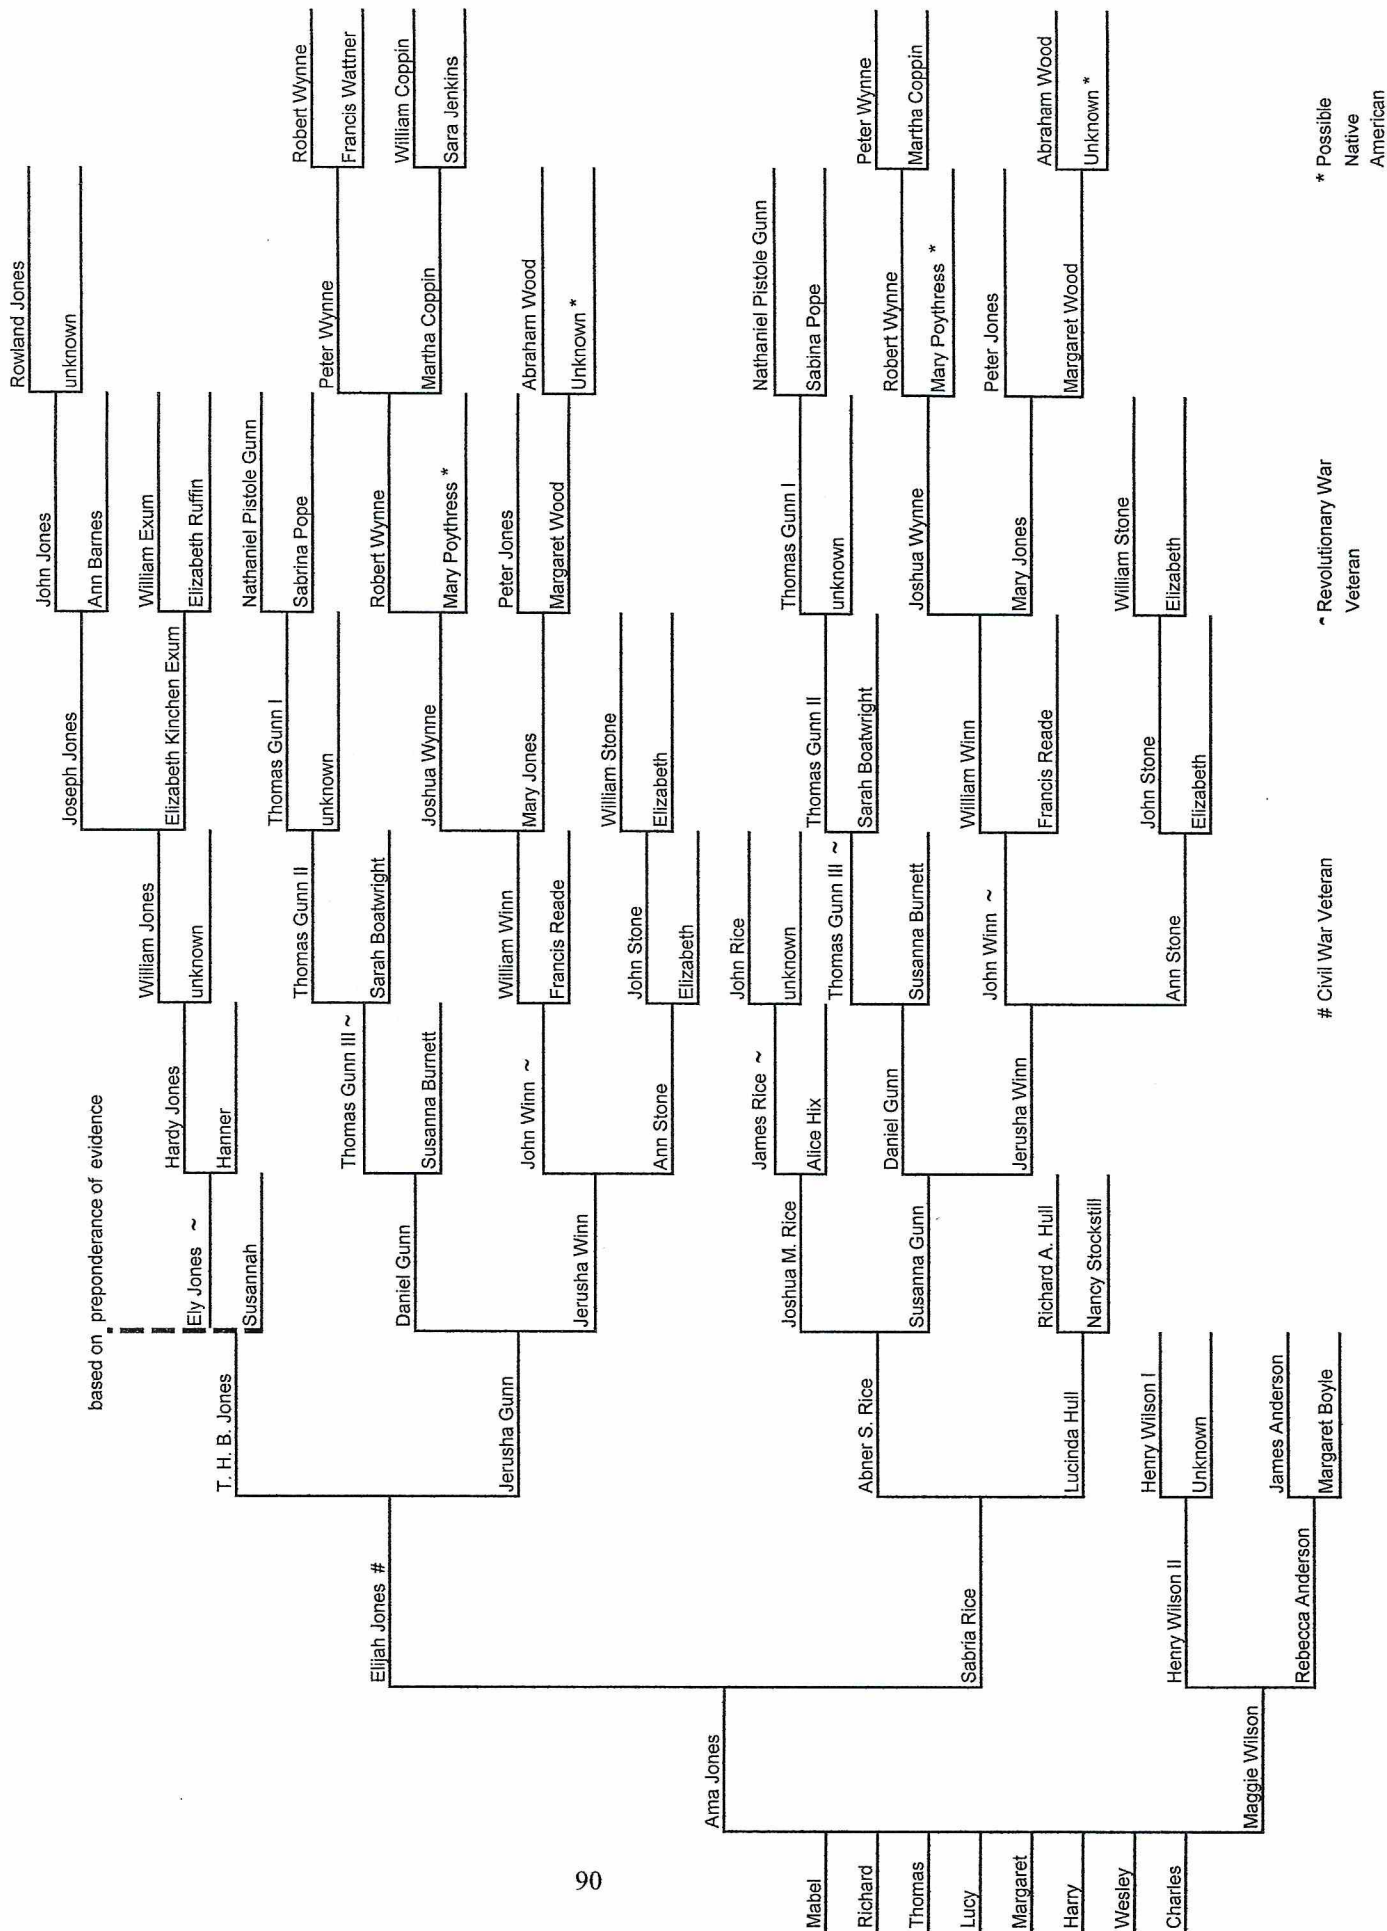

Look for the asterisks * which designate the ancestors (Mary Poythress and Abraham Wood's wife) who we suspect may have been Native Americans. Look also for the ~ symbol which designates our ancestors (John Winn, Thomas Gunn III, James Rice, Ely Jones) who were Revolutionary War Patriots, as well as the # symbol which designates our Civil War ancestor (Elijah J. Jones).

You will also notice on the upper section of the chart a dotted line - - - which shows the line of ancestors which we have connected based on a "pre-ponderance of evidence" because the actual wills we need were removed from a book.

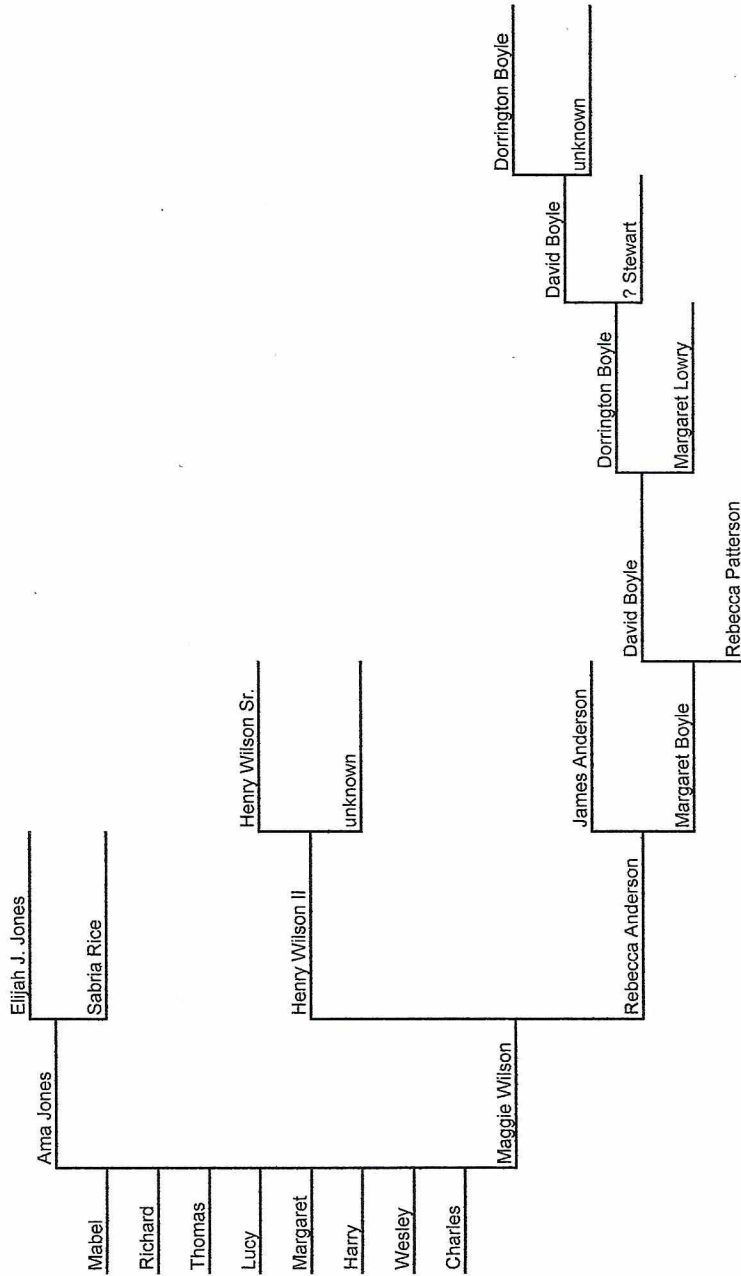

The last interesting feature that we'd like to point out about the ancestor chart is that the same family branch (ancestors of Daniel and Jerusha Winn Gunn) appears twice because two sisters, Jerusha Gunn and Susanna Gunn each married into two different branches of the family tree.

We hope these Ancestor Charts helps you visualize the multiple generations of our family tree.

APPENDIX D

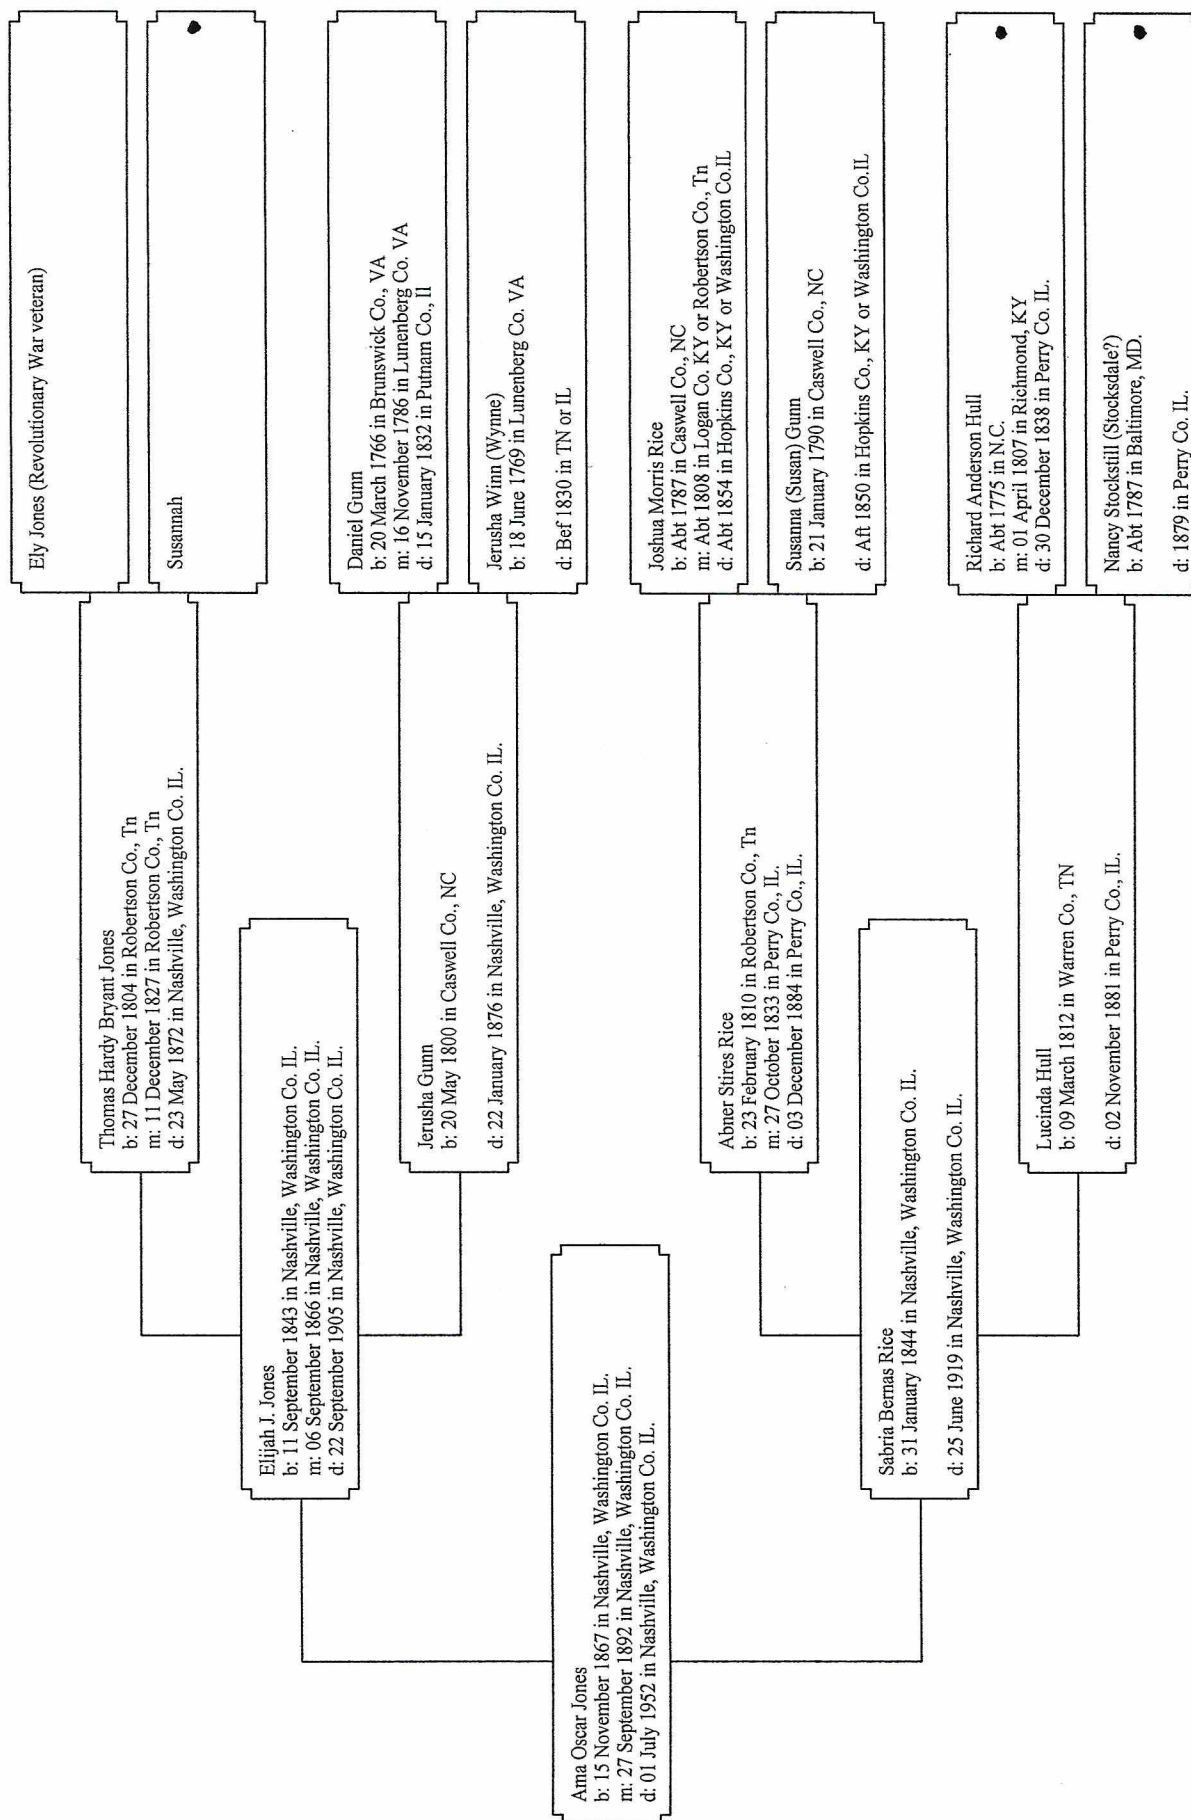

PEDIGREE CHARTS

These Pedigree Charts will help you work your way back through the eleven generations of ancestors of Ama Oscar Jones and Margaret (Maggie) Wilson Jones. You will notice each line of ancestry eventually comes to a point where we have reached the end of a known line (this ending point is designated with a large dot •). At that point the next chart will back up and continue with the next ongoing part of a line. These charts work backward through only the direct line of ancestors.

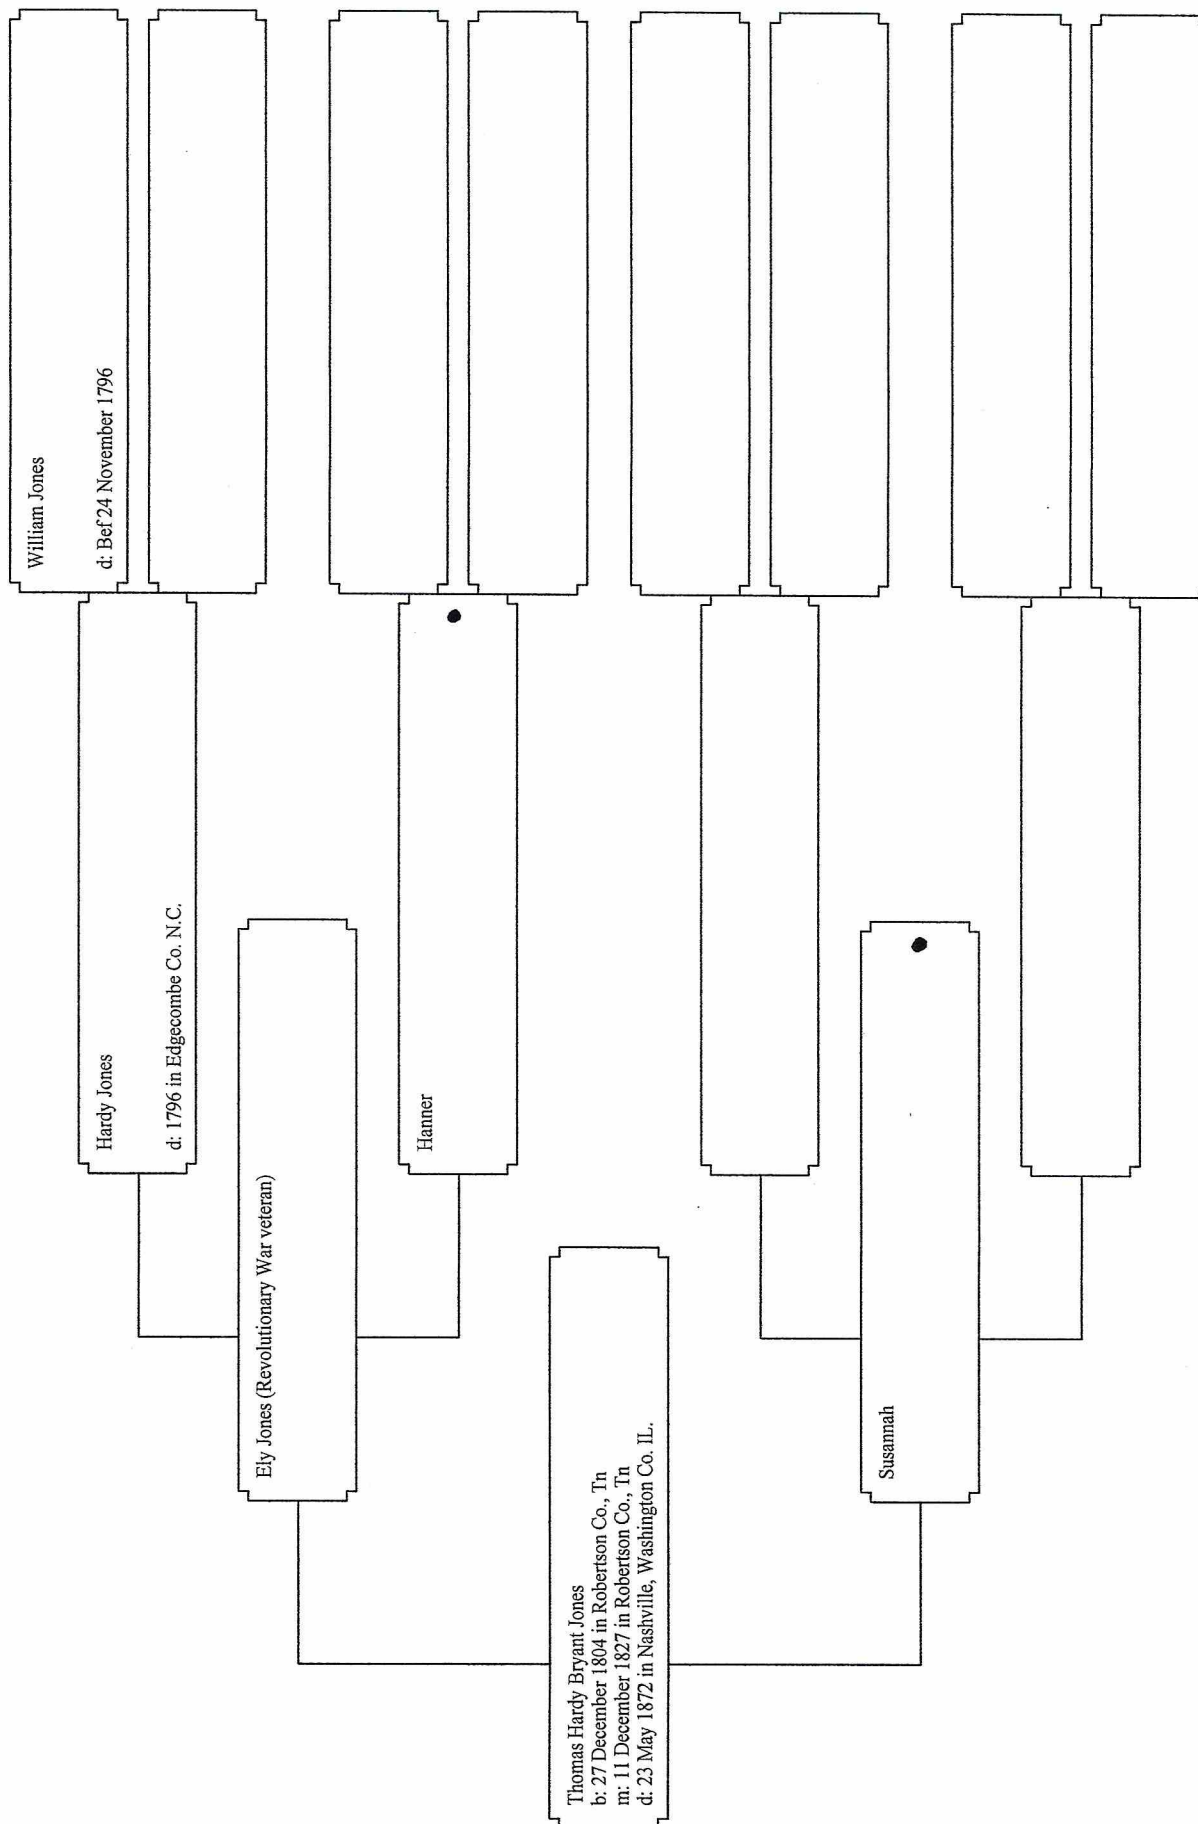

As mentioned earlier in the book, we do have pedigree charts that continue the ancestral line back several centuries beyond Martha Coppin, all the way back to Charlemagne which has been validated by the Society of Genealogists in London. If you are interested in obtaining this pedigree it is available by contacting the author.

DESCENDANT OUTLINES

These Descendant Outlines will help you work your way forward from specific ancestors. These outlines also include the secondary lines of known siblings in each generation. We have shown the Reverend Rowland Jones line down through the great-grandchildren of Ama and Maggie Jones, but there would be too much repetition if we did that for every line so we show others ending at Ama and Maggie's generation.

COUSINS ... PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

This may be the last page of our book ... but it's where your story begins! It took us fifteen years of research, countless hours spent in libraries and courthouses, plus the expenses for travel and printing ... to bring 400 years of our families' history to this point in time. Now it's YOUR turn to add YOUR memories and family history to this book. The spine of the book can easily be opened so you can add your own pages of stories, names and important dates ... and lots of photos!

PLEASE continue the Jones' story ... keep the memories alive for our future generations!
